New York, April 35.—Two women and a man were seriously injured and about fifty persons hurt in a panic of passengers aboard a Third avenue elevated railroad train at Chatham Square today.

The panic resulted from the derailment of one car of a seven car train, which failed to take a switch. A short circuit caused a small fire which added to the fears of the passengers.

Men and women, wedged tight in the cars, fought to reach the derailed structure, where, they walked along the ties to the station, turned into a temporary hospital to care for the injured.

With the exception of the three taken to the hospitals none was seriously hurt.

Tragic was tied up on both the Second and Third avenue lines which join at Chatham Square.

BURIED UNDER PILE OF WOOD

Buried beneath a pile of veneer sheets stacked in the rotary department of the plant of the Portsmouth Panel and Veneer Co., on Mill street, Albert Steel, residing at 1514 Second street, was badly injured Thursday afternoon. He was piling the sheets, which are five-sixteenths of an inch thick when without warning a huge pile of them toppled over on him and he was buried under the avalanche.

An ambulance was called and Mr. Steel was removed to his home. There it was found that he suffered internal injuries, the full nature of which may not be determined for several days. Mr. Steel was first thought to have been dangerously injured, but an examination showed that no bones were broken. He was injured about the hips and his left knee was wrenched.

JAPAN DENIES STORY OF NAVAL BASE IN LOWER CALIFORNIA

Washington, April 15.—An official statement used by the Japanese embassy today characterized as "preposterous" reports that a naval base had been established at Turtle Bay, lower California and declared "that there never had been any intention on the part of the Japanese government to locate a naval base or occupy any territory on the west coast of Mexico."

Operations of Japanese warships in Turtle Bay, embassy officials said, were wholly for the purpose of salvaging the stranded cruiser Asama.

It was stated that while detailed reports from the scene had not been received by the consulate general at San Francisco who is handling the matter, landing on the shore of the bay probably had been found necessary in connection with the salvage work.

Of reports that a naval base had been established, the embassy statement says:

"It is more than absurd; it is preposterous. There never has been any intention on the part of the Japanese government to locate a naval base or to occupy any territory on the west coast of Mexico."

A few Japanese fishermen, about a score in number perhaps, frequent the waters of this bay, but they have no connection whatever with the Japanese naval establishment.

Dispatches from Los Angeles telling of the gathering of foreign warships in the secluded Mexican haven, of a large camp ashore and of mines laid in the harbor created no sensation among lie and two Japanese warships appeared and Admiral Howland steamed away.

When tonight's program entitled "The Green Idol," a Romance, (two reels) American entitled "The Derelict" and a Princess entitled "The Never Known" flashes the ruggedness and blunt strength of the golden west on the screen you'll feel like you are hooked for big action. Friday's attractions are: "The Farewell Dinner" and Cupid and the Pest."

At The Arcana

The eighth episode of "The Master Key" is the leading attraction at the Arcana today. In addition there is "An Example," a big 1-reel; and "The Fox Trot Craze," Sterling comedy. All this big show is offered for 5 cents.

Catholic College Has Anniversary

Washington, April 15.—The twenty-fifth anniversary of the Catholic University of America was celebrated here today in the presence of one of the most distinguished assemblages of Catholic clergy and laymen ever gathered in this country. The three American cardinals, eight archbishops, thirty bishops, thirty monsignors, eight heads of religious orders, sixty representatives of colleges and universities, over three hundred clergy and hundreds of distinguished laymen and women from all over the United States were present.

The ceremonies began this morning with solemn pontifical mass at St. Patrick's church, at which Cardinal Fayley of New York was celebrant and Cardinal Gibbons delivered the sermon, followed by a luncheon, and later academic exercises at which a letter from Pope Benedict XV was read, and addresses were delivered by Cardinal O'Connell of Boston, President G. Stanley Hall of the American Association of Universities, Dr. John Cavanaugh, president of Notre Dame University, and Bishop Shahan, rector of the Catholic University of America.

Cardinal Gibbons in the course of his sermon at the pontifical mass said:

"For the growth of the University, we are indebted above all to the God of Wisdom for whose glory the work was begun. To the great Pontiffs Leo XIII and Pius X and to their successor Pope Benedict XV we make public acknowledgment of our gratitude. To the Catholics of the United States, we return our thanks for their generous support. The experience of these twenty-five years emphasizes the needs which the University aims to supply; the need of divine truth to complete our human knowledge, of divine justice as the highest sanction of law, of the spirit of Christ in our ministrations of mercy and love.

Robert Dodge Sues Pike County Men

Suit to recover judgment for $450, balance alleged due on contract, was filed in common pleas court Thursday by Robert Dodge, against Thomas F. Markham and James W. Robinson, Pike county contractors. Dodge claims that he entered into a contract on June 27, 1914, with the defendants, by the terms of which he was to furnish all the material and labor for the construction of the "Spider Mill" one mile north of Sciotoville, which work the defendants had been awarded by the county commissioners.

He further avers that he was to receive the sum of $1325 for the work. Of this amount, he claims that he has been paid $1101.35, leaving a balance of $223.65. He also claims $226.35 for extra work performed, and asked for judgment for $450.

The county commissioners, treasurer and auditor are named as defendants, for the reason that the plaintiff claims they have money owing to the defendants. A writ of attachment was also prayed for, the plaintiff furnishing $1000 attachment bond.

STAR makes their thinking easier, their labor lighter and their leisure moments more pleasant.

You'll like the thick, tasty STAR plug that gives the utmost in mellow chewing satisfaction. You'll find each bite as good as the one before; you'll find that a STAR plug won't dry out like a thin plug and you'll like the honest weight—each plug a full 16 ounce pound, all the time.

So many men who "do" are men who chew STAR that one day's output would build a STAR plug as high as the Woolworth Building and 23 feet broad.

CLEARING THE WAY.

In proposing to have a clear understanding as to what claims property owners will set up, if the flood wall should be extended, before the extension is actually entered upon, the city is displaying a wisdom and prudence that does not ordinarily go with public business.

The property owners of the section to be protected by the flood wall either want or do not want the protection. They will show which way they are disposed by the extent of the damages they ask that is provided the damage issue is put to them as a condition precedent. If it should appear that in the aggregate the section immediately protected will suffer more injury through the flood wall than it will through the frequent visitation of floods, it follows, as a matter of course, that it would be folly to give the alleged protection. So it is best the matter should be determined before action that finally commits to the erection of the wall is taken. One thing is certain, the claims for damages before the work is underway will not be larger than if asked for afterwards.

MORE VICE DISCOVERED.

Awe-stricken and horrified, the Roanoke World-News in a shuddering column of editorial, discusses frightful conditions revealed in that city. A grand jury reports its discovery that vast sums of money are wagered, won and lost in the local pool rooms. It is credibly testified that sometimes as much as an entire dollar has been bet on a single game of pool and that stakes of twenty-five cents each are not infrequent. Hot spots, truly!

The World-News is very sad over these demonstrations of depravity and wild license. It inquires mournfully how such things can be, sights most doleful and seems to indicate the opinion that pool rooms should be closed and men forbidden from the pernicious vice of poking balls into pockets and risking their lives, their liberties and their sacred fortunes on the comparative skill and luck of the players.

Probably the innocence of this contemporary is uninformed of the fact that people who wish to gamble do not need any special equipment of tools or appliances or provision of places. Gambling can be and is done anywhere and with anything. Once the game of "Fly Low" was very fashionable. It was played by the simple process of each of several men putting on a table a lump of sugar, the man on whose lump the first fly lit taking the entire pot. Crude Low is played by tossing coins in the air, the winner being he whose coin falls most directly upon any crack in the floor. It is said that a certain spectacular character of prominence in the financial world won hundreds of thousands of dollars matching pennies, and the school boys play at odds or evens with marbles. We close the public gaming houses on the theory that they tend to idleness and extravagance, encourage waste and dissipation and give the professional gamblers opportunity to despoil the imprudent citizen. When we undertake to prevent every possibility of gambling we undertake a large contract. To perform it, we must forbid every game or sport in which there is any element of chance or skill or test of speed or strength of men or animals.

When we become too minute in matters of morals we make morality itself disreputable and unpopular. Even religion has been made contemptible some times by having its rules carried to pettiness and by endeavors to enforce them too rigidly. Both the inquisition, intended originally to scrutinize conduct and to judge of orthodoxy, and the Puritan code, undertaking to regulate such matters as the shape and color of clothing and the cutting of hair, were followed by violent reactions and periods of moral laxity and of open and defiant vice. We must leave something to individual taste, responsibility, standards and habits of thought. When we invoke the law to force all men to comply with some fixed system or set of requirements, we are going upon very perilous ground and risking serious and permanent disaster.

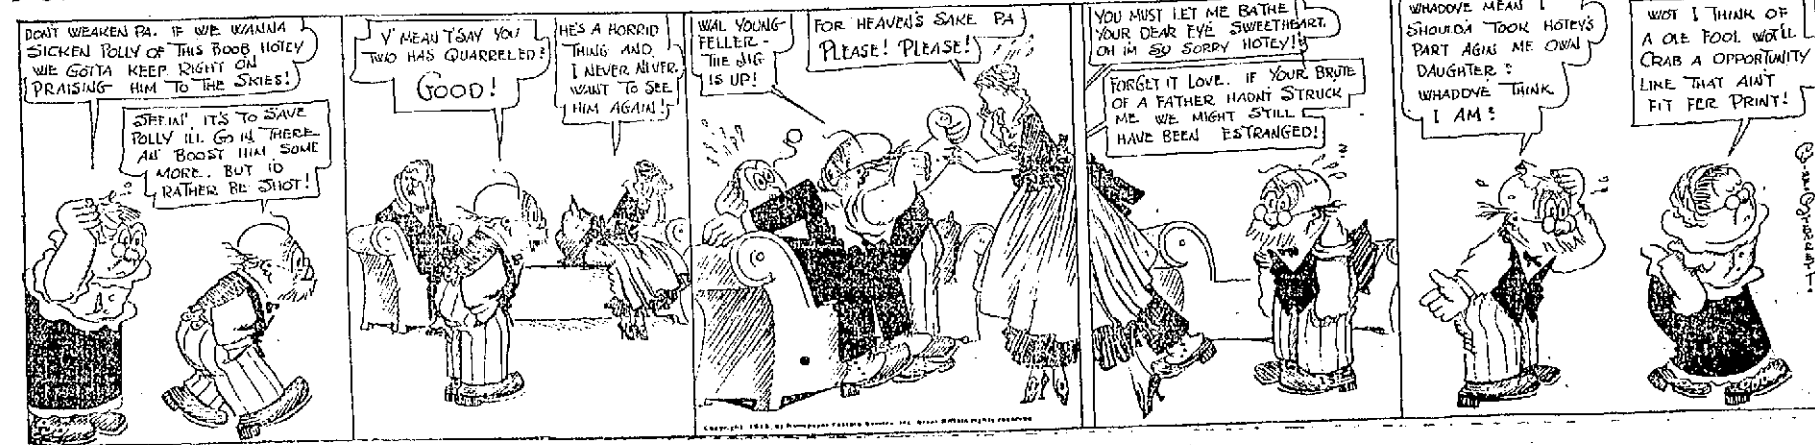

The farmers are going after an experiment station in real earnest. They expected the city, which will pay three-fifths of the cost, to vote it for them the last time. However, the city has become a bit wary with its experience in voting paved roads and it fooled 'em, also scoring heavily against the station.

See "them" buzz wagons parked around government square, these days. Well, watch 'em scatter when the grangers come to town in a few days and set up a produce market. And still there are some fellows out in the woods who protest, them city fellows don't treat 'em right.

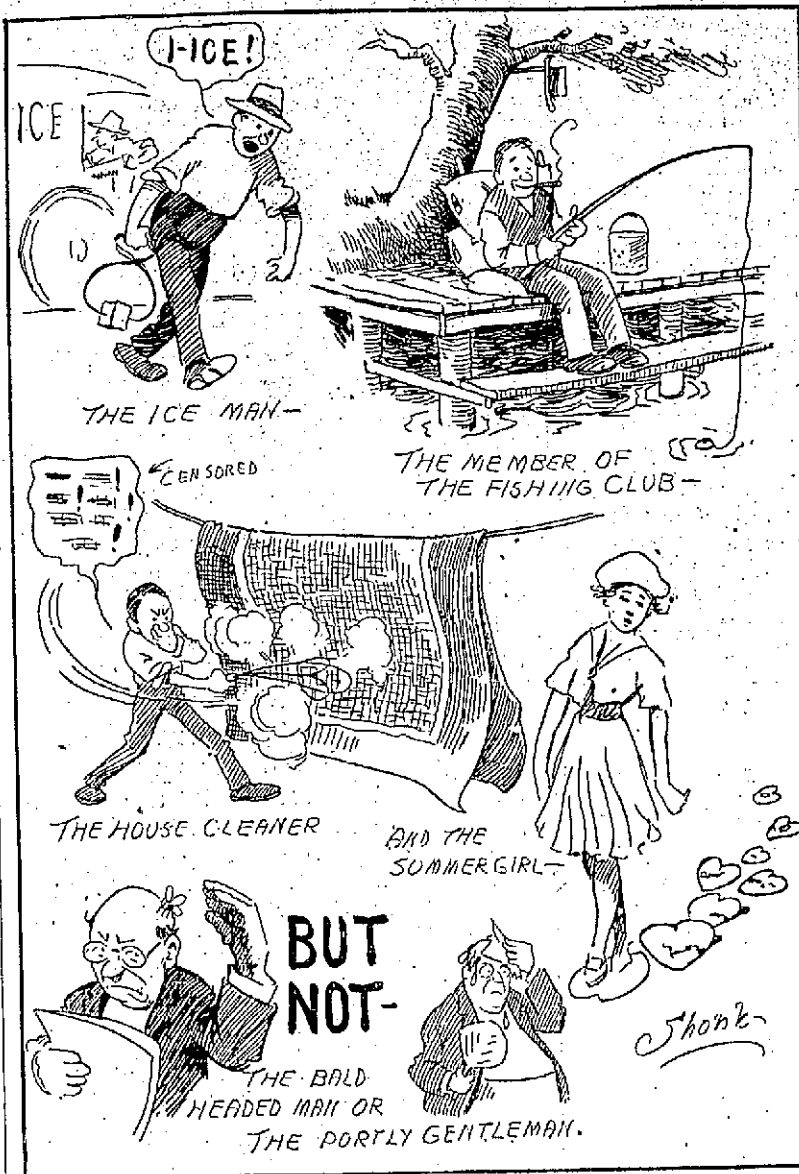

It listens like this part of Southern Ohio was rushing forward when we read so much on the construction of new railroad and interurban lines. We'll get that Cincinnati-to-Pittsburg traction a whole lot sooner than we think.

Wednesday was a real spring day. For this much thanks.

PEOPLE WHO ARE NOW COMING INTO THEIR OWN

VON BERNSTORFF'S PROTEST.

(The Cincinnati Times Star.)

Count Von Bernstorff's memorandum of protest to the American Government, the full text of which was made public Sunday night, will surely live forever as one of Germany's state papers. The whole tone of the note is unusual. Not only the methods but the motives of our Government are subjected to blunt attack.

The criticism is neither temperate nor fair. Americans have been aware for some time of a growing irritation in Germany at the sale of ammunition by this country to the allies. It is not strange that the man in the street in Germany should feel that way about it. He does not understand international law and under the strain of war he does not stop long enough to realize that if Germany instead of England had control of the sea, our markets would be open to Germany rather than to Germany's enemies.

But men of high rank in the German government like Count Von Bernstorff do understand international law and they should realize that it is the course of events in Europe, not any bias on our side, which keeps American trade going with the allies while it is practically barred from Germany. It is somewhat surprising, therefore, to read an official communication to the American Government which is plainly influenced by prejudice and irritability born of the war, and not based on sound judgment of actual conditions.

Kansas claims she cut her liquor bill by twenty-nine million dollars, last year, and still claims to be the best prohibition state of 'em all.

"Did it ever occur to you", asked the man who always stops you on the street, "that these women's dresses ain't cut suitable? No; don't you see this is no season to prepare for high water."

True, it's never too late to maul. Here is the Cincinnati Times-Star, once notorious as a George B. Cox organ, changed into a very independent and courageous sort of a journal.

West Virginia has gone completely broke, but with a profound complacency she is letting the other fellow worry there-over.

Ambassador Count Von Bernstorff talks like a man who is anxious to be invited to take a walk.

Some people are said to have a fortune in their free. Jesse Willard was more fortunate in having one in his fist.

One hundred and fifty thousand dollars in building permits for the first three months of the year, isn't a bad beginning.

Willis appears to have caught a tartar in that man Bryson. And the joke is Bryson is an ex-Republican postmaster.

New Residents

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Wallace of Cincinnati, moved to Portsmouth Wednesday. Mr. Wallace has accepted employment in the plant of the Whitaker-Glassner Steel company.

Wheel Located

Walter S. Coriell, a Findlay street saloon-keeper, reported to the police Wednesday night that his stolen bicycle was in the hands of John Ira, an East End youth. He said Ira claimed to have purchased the wheel from one Ed Bowman.

Song For Youth.

Gather 'all the sweet of May
Look it tenderly away,
Precious night and perfect day.

Make a trove of shining things,
Roses, raindrops, dreams and wings
Catch a skylark while he sings!

While thy breath is young and warm,
While love nestles in thy arm,
Take thy trove and weave a charm!

Then grow old with gallant ease,
For I'm told such wealths as these
Make the fairest memories!
—New York Sun.

What the Best Man Wore

The bride was attired in brown silk trimmed with ribbons, and the groom in brown serge. The bridesmaid, Miss Elizabeth Jamison, wore checkered silk trimmed in green, and the best man, Mr. P. R. Reilly, wore a blue velvet trimmed with soie de cygne.—Hokah (Minn.) Chief.

Entirely Informal

She got up an informal party, A lot of the neighbors were there.

The laughter was frequent and hearty;
'Twas just an informal affair.

Her husband came home jingled slightly,
Informally she pulled his hair.
And then they threw dishes politely;
'Twas just an informal affair.

—Charleston Gazette.

Difficult to Please

They had been engaged only a few weeks, but a little coolness had arisen between them.

"There is nothing that makes me so thoroughly angry," she cried, tears of rage in her blue eyes, "as to have anyone contradict me. I just simply hate to be contradicted."

"Well," he said in a conciliatory tone, "then I won't contradict you any more, Isabel."

"I don't believe you love me," she asserted.

"I don't," he admitted.

"You are a perfectly hateful thing!" she cried.

"I know it," he replied.

"You're trying to please me, aren't you, Jim?" she queried.

"Yes," he conceded.

She was silent for a moment. Then she said: "Well, I certainly do despise a man who is weak enough to let a woman dictate to him. A man ought to have a mind of his own."—Harper's Magazine.

The Last Thing Played

"It is a marvelous," began Green before a goodly audience.

"How coming events cast their shadows before themselves. Why, only the other day there was a fire at our church, and I bet none of you can tell me what was the last thing played on the organ."

"Lost Chord," ventured one.

Green shook his head.

"Was it 'Funst'?" suggested the man of opera.

"All wrong," answered Green.

"Well, what on earth was it?" asked one impatiently.

Green made good his line of retreat, then came his answer.

"The base!" he managed to shout, amid a hail of missiles.—From Answers.

ANIMAL SCHOOL

One summer day Miss Julia Jay remarked, "It is a sin when it's so lovely out of doors that we have to stay in. I'll tell you what I'll dare you all to do right now," said she, "Let's look the school-house door, and then let's hide the school-house key."

The children said, "That will be fun, let's do it right away! But which of us will hide the key?" "I will," said Julia Jay. "I'll put it in the branches of the very tallest tree; Professor Crab will never think of looking there," said she.

They ran right quick and locked the door and gave Miss Julia Jay the key, which she took in her bill, and gaily flew away. And as the children all stood there a-laughing fit to kill, They saw that old Professor Crab was coming up the hill.

Said he, "Good morning, children; what is this fuss about?" "We can't have any school today," said they, "because we are locked out."

"We'll go to school as usual; I have an extra key."

And sure enough that sly old Crab unlocked the door with ease. "It's well, in case of accident," said he, "to have another key. But how the other key was lost, I do not know," said he, "Unless perhaps" (and here he smiled) "it flew up in a tree."

Miss Julia Jay heard every word the Professor said, For she was sitting in a tree directly overhead. Her bill flew open with surprise; the key fell to the ground. "Ah, ha!" said good Professor Crab, "the missing key is found."

"And now," remarked Professor Crab, "you may all go inside. And you Miss Julia Jay, come down, you need not try to hide. I have a bit of extra work for you to do," said he.

"You must stay one hour after school and practice writing KEY."

Thought Julia Jay, "I don't believe I care much for this joke; It didn't go as I had planned; I'm sorry that I spoke; But I won't try another trick," declared Miss Julia Jay; And furthermore, she's kept her word, I'm very glad to say.

answer any questions that might be put to him.

A voice came from the audience: "You seem to know a lot, sir, about a farmer's difficulties. May I ask a question about a woman's one?"

"Certainly," replied the candidate, nervously.

"How can you tell a bad egg?" went on the merciless voice.

The candidate waited until the laughter died away. Then he replied:

"If I had anything to tell a bad egg, I think I should break it gently."

He won the place.—National Monthly.

Quality Versus Quantity

The master of the house, having a taste for game chickens, paid $25 for a pair which pleased him, and had them put in the back lot.

Some one said to the cook, "Aunt Maria, have you seen the $25 chickens?"

"Yes, m, I've seen 'em."

"What do you think of them?"

"Well, she replied emphatically, "er chicken would have to be as big as 'er cow befo' I'd pay $25 fer him!"

Will Close Business

Leslie E. Herzog, proprietor of the Novelty post card shop and shoe shine parlor in the Henry Broadbeck building on Second street expects to close out his business this week.

Leslie has disposed of part of his stock and will store the remainder. He has decided to go on the road again and will carry post card and novelty lines for New York and Chicago concerns.

He has been engaged in the post card business here for nearly seven years and for a time also conducted an employment bureau.

Leffie DeBerrienne, a second hand dealer of clothing and house furnishings, will occupy the room to be vacated by Mr. Herzog, expecting to consolidate his several stores into one.

EAT LESS MEAT IF BACK HURTS

Take a glass of Salts to flush Kidney
If Bladder bothers you—Drink lots of water.

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, nervous headache, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good grocery or drug store, put in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then set fine. This famous extra is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine, so it is no longer irritating, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.

NEW YORK STOCK

New York, April 15.—Deals in stocks today surpassed all recent records, both in respect to activity and number of issues traded in. Realizing sales caused marked recessions at the end.

Early dealings pointed to another session of extreme activity. Initial prices suggested further profit taking by reason of the irregularity of the movement.

Gains of 2 to 5 points were registered by various industrial and equipment shares while some of the more important railway shares the Union Pacific, New York Central, Atchafalpa and St. Paul were fractionally lower. Local stocks added materially to recent advances on very large offerings.

Trading lost none of its feverish activity during the morning session the overturn of the first two hours approximately yesterday's enormous total. Business was on the broadest scale thus far witnessed, taking in many issues not heretofore quoted.

There was a confusion of gains and losses, and leading stocks continued to evidence further irregularity. Realizing's course being especially erratic. London and other foreign centers were sellers here to a considerable extent and local interests particularly the holding element renewed their operations on the short side. Bonds were irregular.

Inevitable profit taking took the edge off the late rise, leaders declining 1 to 2 points from their best. The closing was strong.

CHICAGO GRAIN

AND PROVISIONS

Chicago, April 15.—Wheat swept higher in price today as a result of a general rush to buy. Bullish sentiment was encouraged because of strength shown in Liverpool quotations and owing to the apparent tightening of the available supply situation the world over.

Special attention was given to the fact that estimates of the exportable surplus of India had been reduced to 75,000,000 bushels as against previous estimates of 120,000,000 bushels. Active profit taking on the bulge led, however, to a material setback.

"After opening 1/2 to 2 cents higher the market rose about 1/4 more and then receded about 1 cent. Corn hardened with wheat. The market was steady.

Higher prices for hogs lifted provisions. Trade, though, was small, especially in lard.

Closing prices were unsettled at 1/2 to 1/4 cent above last night. Traders in corn afterward proved that about going short and the market again began to ascend but eased off when wheat lifted. Heavy. The close was firm at a slant to 1/2 cent advance.

JITNEY CAR UPSETS; PASSENGERS INJURED

The lives of four people were imperiled at the noon hour Tuesday when a jitney bus driven by W. J. Hartz and occupied by W. A. Thornton of 1712 Twelfth street, Capt. E. Robinson of the Salvation Army, 1028 Chillicothe street, and Cadet Margaret Leckliter of Mt. Vernon, Ohio, struck the curbing at Twelfth and North Waller streets and turned over. They were pinned under the car and it was some little time before they could be released from their dangerous position.

Mr. Thornton had his left ankle sprained and was bruised about the shoulders.

Capt. E. Robinson had her hips bruised and was cut about the nose. Her left arm was also sprained.

Cadet Margaret Leckliter, who is visiting here, was bruised about the lower lips and suffered greatly from shock.

W. J. Hartz who was at the wheel of the machine escaped with minor bruises.

The accident resulted when Mr. Hartz attempted to prevent his car from running into Dr. D. A. Berndt's machine. The jitney bus was being driven west on Twelfth street and Dr. Berndt was driving south on North Waller, returning from a trip he had made to the Hilltop. According to Mr. Hartz he was under the impression that the two cars were going to crash into each other and he attempted to swing his machine around the corner with the result that it ran up over the curbing, hit a telephone pole and turned turtle.

It was rumored that Mr. Thornton, who has charge of the carport department in the Anderson Bros. company's store, had a leg broken and the other occupants were seriously hurt. Mr. Thornton was taken to his home in Dr. Berndt's machine and will be around as usual in a few days. Capt. E. Robinson and Cadet Leckliter were resting easily this afternoon. They are under the care of Dr. Berndt.

The Hartz machine was not badly damaged. The windshield was smashed and the radiator, it was stated, was slightly damaged. Mr. Hartz operated one of the first jitney busses that made their appearance on the local streets.

WHEN YOU WASH YOUR HAIR DON'T USE SOAP

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is just plain mulled coconut oil, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap, and heats soaps or anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.

POPE IN LETTER PRAISES KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS FOR $500,000 ENDOWMENT

Washington, April 15.—A letter from Pope Benedict XV was read at the exercises today commemorating the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Catholic University of America. The letter speaks in high terms of the work of the university and of the gift of $500,000 from the Knights of Columbus for the endowment of scholarships. The letter is as follows:

"To Our Beloved Sons, James Cardinal Gibbons, Archbishop of Baltimore, John Cardinal Farley, Archbishop of New York, William Cardinal O'Connell, Archbishop of Boston, and to Our other Venerable Brethren, the Archbishops and Bishops of the United States of America, Benedict XV, Pope.

"Beloved Sons and Venerable Brethren,

"Greeting and Apostolic Benediction: We have recently learned that preparations were being made at Washington for observing with due solemnity the twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of the Catholic University, and that the celebration, graced by your presence and by that of distinguished members of the faculty, would be quite in keeping with the singularly happy character of the occasion. That you, Beloved Sons and Venerable Brethren, should above all rejoice at the prosperity of the university is obvious to every one who realizes that the beginnings and the gratifying progress of this seat of learning are owing especially to your wise and timely care. And yet this joy of yours is not so peculiar to you but that we also may in some way share it. For we love, nay, we deeply cherish the American people forceful as they are with the vigor of youth and second to none in efficiency of action and thought; and as we earnestly desire that an ever widening path to the highest level of human achievement may open before them, so we cannot but feel the deepest pleasure at everything that furthers their progress.

"Still, in your tireless endeavors you aimed not merely at enriching the mind with learning; what you chiefly sought was to imbue it with that heavenly wisdom whose 'light cannot be put out' and 'with which all good things' shall come to your flocks. These proofs indeed of your pastoral solicitude must appeal to every fair-minded observer as worthy of the highest commendation and deserving of the appreciation and support of your fellow citizens, especially of your Catholic people and in particular of your clergy.

"In this connection we will not withhold our praise from the Knights of Columbus who, as you lately informed us, by their splendid contribution to the funds of the university have carried into effect their wisely conceived design of extending to young men less favored by fortune the advantages of a solid and at the same time a Christian education. This noble example of beneficence, which all good men approve, we hold up for imitation and generous emulation to all who are blessed with means; and we heartily wish that you yourselves, Beloved Sons and Venerable Brethren, will advance the cause of the university by sending to it students whose superior qualities of mind and disposition give promise of the best results. In addition to other advantages which are thence to be expected, the clergy of the Church in America will receive one and the same culture and training; and this—we speak in those who know by experience—means without doubt a clergy whose piety will bear richer fruit because of their more active and more harmonious co-operation for a common purpose.

"This blessing we implore with prayerful instance from God; and as an earnest of heavenly favors and a token of our good will, we most lovingly in the Lord bestow upon you all, Beloved Sons and Venerable Brethren, upon the Rector, the professors and the students of the university, and upon the Knights of Columbus as well, our Apostolic Benediction.

"Given at St. Peter's, Rome, this thirtieth day of March, 1915, in the first year of our Pontificate.

"BENEDICT XV, POPE."

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, enigmas, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, O. Office Phone 60. Residence A-620.

Dear Miss Wise—I see by Monday's Times, where an ex-resident asks why the people of Portsmouth don't take more interest in their city and try to make it beautiful. I am an extensive property owner and try to keep my property in the best of condition, painting, etc., but, what is the use of trying to keep your front lawn nice and grassy, and plant flowers when your neighbors, who have from three to five children apiece, deliberately allow their bad children to run all over said lawn and throw all the paper and trash they can find on the sidewalk, and then have them "sass" you back if you say anything. And another thing, allowing children—boys to play ball on vacant lots and throwing balls so hard as to endanger window panes. Can't the mayor or council do something about roller skating and roller coasting on sidewalks? I have a nice cement walk in front of my home and children have ruined it with roller coasters. And yet again, the smoke nuisance. Who has the heart to paint and scrub and dig, when factories and other buildings belch forth their filthy smoke. I don't want to be a kicker, but maybe some of these reasons will answer why some people don't care to fix up, and if they do, it is all for naught. For my part, I think Portsmouth is as clean as any other town, and people take an interest in their homes. It's a certain element that allow their children to run promiscuously, they don't care who they annoy, just so long as they don't play in their own yards and annoy their mothers. People who have children, should have some consideration for those who have none, and keep them at home where they belong, and should train them NOT to throw everything on the sidewalk. My children never play away from home. I allow them the back yard to do as they please, and they don't annoy any one. Teach children to pick up instead of throw down paper and trash, and the streets won't be so littered and the city will look cleaner.

POLLY ANN.

fighter it was that fought several rounds with a broken wrist, who was his opponent and which gained the victory, and on what date they fought. Who did James J. Jeffries win the championship belt from?

MOP-UP.

On Nov. 2 last Freddie Welsh defeated Ad Wolgast in an eight-round boxing bout, staged in New York City. The bout was stopped in the eighth round because Wolgast broke a bone in his right hand. We have no other record of a "broken wrist" fight. Jeffries won his belt from Bob Fitzsimmons at San Francisco, on July 25, 1902.

Dear Dolly—I wish you would help me to decide a question. I am 18 and have been going with a young man for some time. At least I am supposed to be going with him, but he hardly ever keeps a date. He is always anxious to make dates with me, but he nearly always forgets about them when the time comes to fill them. He always has an excuse, but I don't believe him. I am sure he makes up something to tell me all the time. Please tell me how to make him care more for me. I could get others, but I like this one best.

WORRIED GIRL.

You should become very independent and refuse to make another date with the young man, for he surely has not treated you fairly. If you know that he is inclined to be untruthful why do you want him to care for you? Surely you would be much happier without the friendship of a man you cannot believe or trust. A girl of your age should be forming many friendships. Do not let one man monopolize so much of your time, that you have no time for your other friends.

Dear Miss Wise—I would like to have a job of passing papers. If I send you a stamped envelope will you please let me know when there is a vacancy?

G. G.

We haven't any vacancies for carriers on the regular routes, but if you will come down to the office you can sell the noon extras and also the evening edition on the streets.

Dear Dolly—Should one remove their gloves at a wedding breakfast?

IGNORANT.

Yes. The gloves are not removed however, until the guest is seated at the table. They should be put on again at the close of the meal.

Dear Miss Wise—It comes mighty handy to have some one in our city to whom we may go with all our questions, knowing that they will be answered correctly and courteously. Will you please favor me with the names of the leading daily paper, or if there be no daily, then the leading weekly paper in each of the following cities and towns: Mayville, Ky., Vanceburg, Ky., Greenup, Ky., Morehead, Ky., Louisville, Ky., Wellston, O., Jackson, O.

paper. At Morehead there is a weekly called The Mountaineer. They have no daily. Louisville has two dailies, The Big Sandy Enterprise and The Big Sandy News. Wellston has one daily called The Sentinel, and two weeklies, The Transcript and The Telegram. There are three semi-weeklies in Jackson, The Herald, The Sun and The Jackson Standard-Journal.

Dear Dolly—I noticed by last night's Times where there were 21 jitneys racing about town, but when anyone wants one, they're none to be found. For the benefit of the public, especially the residents of the East End, I would like to ask why these jitney drivers or owners do not have a regular schedule or route, or else a station or waiting place where people could get hold of one. If this is not satisfactory why not have a telephone or at least have some way of reaching them. There are many places in town that can't be reached by the street cars and these folks would use the jitney if they could find one. Would suggest they establish a station down town and also one in the East End.

AN EAST ENDER.

The members of the Y. W. C. A. executive board and their husbands will be entertained at luncheon Friday at noon at the Y. W. C. A. to meet Miss Harriet Harrison, field secretary.

Miss Crystal Jacobs gave a bridal shower Tuesday evening at her home, at the Terminal, in honor of Miss Edna Astholz, who will be married early next month to Mr. Frank Baggs, Jr. There were about a dozen guests. The decorations were pink and white. Music and games were followed by a dainty repast. Other showers are being arranged for the bride-to-be.

Mrs. James McMahon and her daughter, Miss Margaret, expect to leave about the first week in May to make their home with Mr. Edward McMahon in Saint Louis, Mo. They will improve their home on Ninth street, which will be for rent.

and mothers can rest easy after giving it because it never fails to effect a good "inside cleansing." For thirty years "California Syrup of Figs" has been recommended by physicians as the ideal stomach, liver and bowel cleanser. We make no cheaper sizes. Hand back any "counterfeit" with contempt.

Quotes The Law About Hospital

Prosecuting Attorney Jos. T. Mickelthwait has furnished the following to Mrs. Emma McFadden concerning the proposed tuberculosis hospital:

Dear Madam: I have investigated the statutes pertaining to a tuberculosis hospital and find the law to be as follows:

First. The county itself cannot build a hospital. Under section 3140, which was repealed, Ohio Laws, 1913, this could be done.

Second. The county can join in the creation of a district hospital, under section 3143.

Third. If there is incorporated under the laws of the state a hospital for the exclusive purpose of caring for and treating persons suffering from pulmonary tuberculosis the County Commissioners may contract for the care and treatment of persons so afflicted, residents of the county, provided the hospital is approved by the State Board of Health. This is under section 3143.

I will be pleased to give you any other information pertaining to this matter that may present itself to your mind from time to time.

Yours truly,

Odd Fellows Held Splendid Meeting

Odd Fellows who attended the regular meeting of Portsmouth Lodge No. 416 on Wednesday evening were more than pleased with the good work of Canton Orient No. 67, who conferred the first degree upon Daniel Stephens and Wayne Nelson.

Although this is the first time that a team composed entirely of Patriarchs Militant conferred a subordinate lodge degree in this portion of the state, it was accomplished in a very commendable manner, despite the fact that there had been no previous rehearsals. After the degree work the Canton, under command of Capt. L. A. Shelton and in full dress uniform, gave a short floor and sword drill, which was much appreciated by the large number present.

Several visitors were present and the evening closed with a few short talks and a smoker.

OHIO BUILDINGS AT EXPOSITION IS CREDIT TO THE BUCKEYE STATE JUDGE JAMES W. BANNON SR.

"The Ohio building at the Panama Exposition in San Francisco is a beautiful structure architecturally and it is a credit to our state," said Judge James W. Bannon in discussing the Panama Exposition.

"Notwithstanding that Great Britain, France, Germany, Italy, Austria, Hungary and Russia are not represented, the exhibits are simply wonderful. The exposition is complete in every little detail. One building is more attractive than the other, the people are very courteous and we found things really better than we had pictured. The trip is just what you want to make it. You can make it as inexpensive as you want and you can make it as much as you want," continued Judge Bannon.

"We were on the go all the time and enjoyed every feature of both the Panama and San Diego expositions. Everybody out West is boasting them and they will attract thousands of visitors from all parts of the United States. It is a treat to drop around the Ohio building as you will always find people there from the Buckeye State."

Anderson Bros. Use Novel Buying Plan

New York, April 15.—(Special to the Times)—An unique method of purchasing merchandise for special sale purposes was demonstrated here today. The Anderson store in Ohio used the columns of the New York Times, advertising for manufacturers to present lines of underpriced goods for acceptance of the Anderson buyers at their offices on the thirteenth floor of the Chrysler building. A crowd of manufacturers' salesmen were at the offices all afternoon and it is reported much merchandise was bought. When approached W. W. Anderson, one of the buyers, stated that the experiment was a success in every way and that many bargains were picked up, all of which would be used in a great anniversary sale to be given. Men in the dry goods district, generally, felt favorably impressed with the method pursued and indications are that other firms throughout the country will follow the method used by the Anderson store.

The lecture is being arranged with a view to advising the residents of this county of the nature of the work done by the Ohio Commission and the great need for it at the present moment, particularly in the country of Belgium. The views, more than 100 of which will be shown by Mr. McCrehen, are from authentic photographs taken within the last few months in Belgium and Northern France. Mr. McCrehen has had an intimate acquaintance with the relief work since it started and will be able to tell the people of this community in what manner they may be most helpful to the cause. Mr. McCrehen's lecture will be given at the high school auditorium and will begin promptly at 8 o'clock. No admission will be charged.

Millions Starving

There remain and will remain, in Belgium, seven millions of tragic inhabitants, almost twice the population of the state of Ohio. In the country districts eighty per cent of these are women and children, who, as though hypnotized by disaster, hunt hopelessly the ruins which were once their homes.

Many districts are nothing but graveyards. There is no seed to sow. There are no implements. There is no money. There is no credit. There is no work.

No modern famine was ever like this famine, because it is universal. The entire population has to be fed, and those whom charity does not reach will die.

There are districts as large as our own county without grain, flour, beans, peas or even salt.

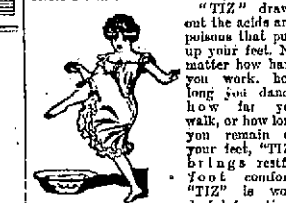

There are no longer the rich, or the poor; there is only one class—the starving.

Compared with this awful calamity, how petty are the troubles of the American public.

GUMB SAGE TEA IN LIFELESS, GRAY HAIR

Look young! Common garden Sage and Sulphur darken so naturally nobody can tell.

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and abundant with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair fell out or took on that faded, old or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By using any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, ready to use, for about 25 cents. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair and is splendid for dandruff, dry, itchy scalp and falling hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. It's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and abundant.

Reds Drop Opener To Pittsburgh Pirates

Well, the Reds dropped the opener to Pittsburgh, the score being 9 to 2.

Last year the Reds beat Chicago 10 to 1 and had a disastrous season. Starting off with a defeat this year instead of a victory may reverse things. It was all Pittsburgh in the curtain raiser. More than 20,000 fans saw the Reds perform sloppily on the field. Big George McQuillan was in fine form while Ames and Schneider failed to tame the ferocious Pirates. Here is the score of game number one:

BLOOMER GIRLS HAVE ORGANIZED

The Bloomer Girls baseball team held a meeting Wednesday night and organized for this season.

They have been practicing for the past two weeks and expect to begin playing regular by the first of May. The team is composed of some pretty good players most of them having played on the team when it was first organized during the strike last year. The lineup is as follows:

Sophie Barber, 1b; Clara Brumfield, 2b; Lulu Hicks, ss; Bess Myers, 3b; Robert Matthews, p; Clarence Savers, cf; Emma Foster, c; Anna Holmes, rf; Sandra Hicks, lf.

Anyone wishing a tryout can apply to Manager Bess Myers or Captain Clara Brumfield, 1308 Robinson Ave.

MANSFIELD & PREDIGER WINNERS AT DUCK PINS

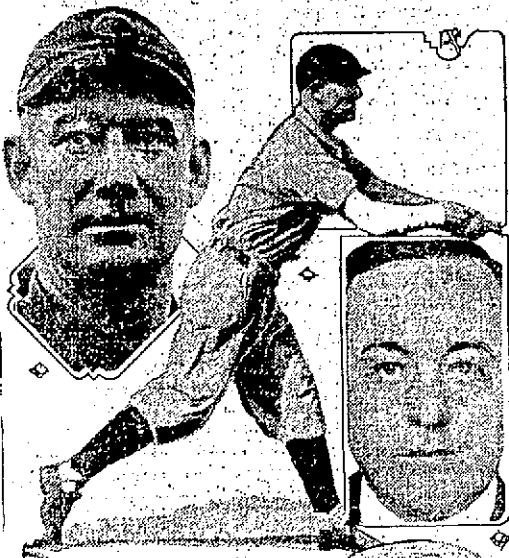

Ralph Mansfield and Byron Prediger triumphed at the Play House last night. The fact that they are now artists when it comes to rolling duck pins, they defeated Albert Wuester and Bob McGorkle in a five game match by a margin of 430 pins. Messrs. Wuester and McGorkle captured but one game, the first, after which Mansfield and Prediger left their opponents far in the rear. Mansfield had a great night, averaging 135 1/2, a record that will doubtless stand for many days to come. The scores were good and while Wuester and McGorkle were defeated they are going and propose to again issue a challenge to the champions. The scores:

Milwaukee, Wis., April 15.—With the opening of the season, the American Association baseball season in Milwaukee was looking for this morning, the home team being opposed by the Milwaukee club. "Big" Young ne Bovik and Hughes, it was said would be the battery for Milwaukee and Williams and Sullivan for the visitors.

FOUR NEW MANAGERS START SEASON

When the major league baseball season opened on Wednesday four new managers were in the saddle. They were Roger Brenahan of the Chicago Cubs, Clarence Rowland of the Chicago White Sox, Pat Moran of the Phillies, and Wild Bill Donovan of the New York Yankees. Three of these men have had many years' experience in the big leagues; the fourth, Clarence Rowland, is a young man untried in major league experience. Brenahan, Donovan and Moran, as they have already shown their worth. As to Rowland, the critics are saying little and watching much.

BASEBALL POT SEETHING IN IRONTON

(Frontonian).
At a meeting of the Ironton ball club directors, held last evening many matters of importance were discussed and the business of starting off the season was put under way very nicely.

It was announced after the meeting that the Dayton Central League team, which has been cleaning up for Columbus town in the American Association, will likely be the attraction at the local groundsward next Saturday and Sunday. This has not been definitely arranged, but it is thought that the games are almost certain.

The directors yesterday decided to secure the services of Frank Brown as ground keeper.

The ticket proposition was taken up and it was decided to sell a book of twenty-five tickets, good for any game for $5.00 and to sell children's tickets at ten cents per ticket. It was further decided to put the book of tickets for sale for a dollar a year hereafter on the market today and an effort will be made to dispose of a large number of them.

An effort will be made to sell sign space on the fence to merchants. Bids for the stand privileges will be received by the directors.

Boost For Braves

Grantland Rice in a current magazine says: "When one looks at this Braves' club, under fire or at work, there comes an impression of the mental and the psychological rather than the physical. And psychologically no ball club was ever better primed for a laurel-crowned champion."

For observe—if the Braves are away to a winning start this April, plus the confidence and ability they already have, it will take an iron will reinforced with concrete to stop their rush.

But if they get a poor start and are still lagging by June, they will have the memory of July and August, 1914, to keep them buoyed up with the knowledge that a game ball club is never beaten.

They still have the memory of a certain ball club (that) back in July, 1914, was sixteen games behind the leaders, and four months later, because it refused to quit, was the champion ball club of the considerably shut-up and devastated world. And it won't be a thought of what some one else was able to do, but of what they were able to do themselves. So in the psychological by-paths the Braves are doubly guarded with inspiration either way they turn. This good that men do lives after them as well as the evil, contrary to the opinion expressed by a well-known bard of some few seasons back. For the good the Braves did for themselves and the game last summer will be a worthy inspiration for the battles that still wait on ahead.

TO PLAY BALL IN CHINA

Honolulu, H. I., April 15.—Under the patronage of the Chinese government and with the personal assistance of Wu Ting Fang, former Chinese minister to the United States, a baseball team of American-born Chinese is on its way now on the steamer Mongolia bound for Shanghai by way of the Philippines and Japan. Their expenses while in China will be met by the Chinese government. The team will tour the principal cities of the interior with the object of introducing American athletics for the physical development of the youth in China.

GOVERNOR TO PITCH FIRST BALL

Columbus, April 15.—With a new manager, Rudy Holsvilt, to direct their play and Louisville as their opponents, Columbus American Association players were ready for the first championship game of the season here today. Schneider or Eayres will be selected to pitch for Columbus while Northrup will be on the mound for the visitors. Governor Willis is expected to pitch the first ball. This is Holsvilt's day in honor of Manager Holsvilt, who is a former Columbus player.

Team To Be Fast

"Ironton is going to have one swell ball club this year," said Conrad J. Novak, who came down from Ironton last night to attend the B.K. festivities.

Manager Dick Smith has signed up many players and the team will be just as fast as last year despite the fact that the salary limit has been cut to $3,000. There is a lot of enthusiasm up my way and I am confident that Ironton is going to stage a real come back in the baseball world this summer."

ARE LOYAL TO REDS

Portsmouth fans are loyal to Cincinnati.

Practically all of them were pulling for the Reds to win the initial struggle with the Pirates Wednesday. The Reds have a number of loyal supporters, but none are more loyal than the Portsmouth contingent. Nothing would please the boys here any more than to have the Reds win a National league pennant. Here's hoping.

Lefty James Will Pitch

Cleveland April 15.—While bright skies greeted the opening day of the American Association baseball season here today, a cool breeze from the lake gave promise that it would be rather chilly in the stands at Sumner Park when the Cleveland and Indianapolis teams line up for the ball game this afternoon. Manager Jack Kinkel of the local Splinters expected to use Lefty James in the box.

Overcome By Heat
Pearl Hewitt, who is one of the city's best known mill men, was overcome by heat at the Whitaker-Glesner plant a few nights ago.

Expositions Fine Says F. X. Mercier

"Both expositions are exceptionally fine and well worth seeing, we found the hotels very reasonable with their rates and the residents of the Golden State are putting themselves out to look after visitors to these big affairs," said Mr. Mercier, Wednesday. They visited in Seattle, Oakland, Vancouver, St. Paul, Milwaukee and Chicago on their way home.

Mr. and Mrs. Mercier reside at 837 Sixth street.

City Has Chance To Get Battery

A battery for Portsmouth! Sure! Every fellow rise up on his hind legs and say "aye." For years we've depended solely upon our warship Bonnie for defense, and every time the Japs, John Bulls, Dutch, "Froggies" or what not, begin to get bumptious we've quaked in our fear that a catastrophic crash might take an ungodly notion to yank the Bonnie down into the dark 16-inch abyssal depths of the muddy Ohio and leave us absolutely defenseless. But with a 42-centimeter planted on each of the high knobs surrounding our fair city and a few scattered around prominently over our public squares we could sit back on our lonesome Scrap, make faces at the other fellows and tell 'em we were a nagle and didn't give a "dern" how soon they "mixed" with us.

Lieut. Col. Park F. Yangling, commander of Department of Ohio Sons of Veterans Reserves, the military branch of the order, writes from Cleveland that it will be impossible for him to be here at the big district meeting of the Sons of Veterans, Friday evening, as he has been ordered by Major Gen. Amies of Philadelphia, National Commandant of the Reserves, to Indianapolis to instruct the Indiana Reserves, how to prevent the governors, mayors, sheriffs, police cops, and others from carrying off the state while the inhabitants are getting their forty winks.

Col. Yangling states that he is looking for a city in Ohio to install a battery and believes Portsmouth would be a good location. He will come here this spring to meet with Vienna Camp and see if this can not be done.

In meantime the board of trade or some of our multi-millionaires should get "aaxt" to this. The Sons of Veterans and Spanish-American war veterans can be depended upon to furnish the firing men to equip the battery. The few millions needed to push the 42-centimeters can be raised.

He will remain on duty with his successor until Saturday night and will then go to Cincinnati to resume his former position as chef at D. Dietrich's club house at Fort Thomas, Ky.

ENTHUSIASM RAMPANT AT ROLICKING ELK MEETING

The annual inspection and installation of officers, coupled with an initiation Wednesday night, proved a sufficient magnet to attract what was probably one of the best meetings in point of attendance and enthusiasm that Portsmouth Lodge B. P. O. Elks has held in many years.

Fully 185 members of the antlered tribe were seated around the festal board when this feature of the evening's festivities was reached. The tables were arranged in the big lodge room and as the banqueters sat down to the shimmering tables the scene was a most inspiring one, and Wednesday night, April 14, 1915, will be recalled as one of the most joyous and rollicking in the history of this growing and progressive order. The true spirit of Elkdom permeated the banquet hall and the Bohemian side of Elkdom was never more enjoyed than it was last night. Visitors from Chillicothe, Ironton, Waverly, Reaucke, Williams, Bluefield, Ashtland and Cheltenham were present and thoroughly enjoyed every feature of the evening's program.

Following the initiation of a class of candidates the annual inspection was held by District Deputy Karl Zoellner, a past-exalted ruler of the local lodge, and it was an impressive ceremony, as it always is.

District Deputy Will Get Jewel

It was befitting that Mr. Zoellner saved his home lodge as the last one to inspect, and as he took the chair to begin the inspection he was greeted by much applause. It is a well-known fact in Portsmouth Elkdom that Mr. Zoellner made one of the best exalted rulers the lodge ever had, and persistence, tact and energy were rewarded when he was tendered so warm a reception. As a token of esteem and appreciation it was announced that the lodge would in the near future present a handsome solid gold jewel to District Deputy Mr. Zoellner, and a similar insignia of honor to Past Exalted Ruler Orin B. Oakes. The latter laid down the gavel last night after a most successful year and retired with a full realization of the fact that he was rewarded by the sincerest motives and that each act of his eminently satisfactory administration reflected credit upon himself as well as his lodge. Mr. Oakes made a splendid little talk and heartily thanked the members for their unswerving loyalty and voiced his gratefulness for the honor conferred upon him by the lodge in that he, too, is shortly to be presented with a handsome jewel.

The now exalted ruler, H. Stanley McCall, when called upon for a short talk responded in a happy vein and assured those present that Portsmouth Lodge No. 164, B. P. O. Elks, would continue to press forward, and that he hoped in the near future would be adjusted permanently in a home that would meet its every requirement.

Gave Review Of Inspections
District Deputy Mr. Zoellner gave a brief review of the fourteen lodges he inspected the past three months, and stated that he would have a very comprehensive report to make of his inspections to the grand exalted ruler.

"I have looked after this important matter carefully and diligently and I feel that my untiring efforts to boost Elkdom in my district and to instill the spirit of progressiveness into the different lodges will bear fruit. I realize the grand lodge reposed considerable confidence in me and it gives me the greatest of pleasure to be in position to inspect my own dearly-beloved lodge," continued Mr. Zoellner. "It is an extreme pleasure that comes to so few of us and I feel that this is one of the happiest nights in my life."

Mr. Zoellner was at his best and his short review of Elkdom, as it was mirrored to him in his district, was interesting and well done.

Past Exalted Ruler Orin B. Oakes then called on Judge George M. Osborn for a talk and he responded as he always does, in a most excellent style. Judge Osborn is a character member of the lodge and he became quite reminiscent in his talk and told of the days when the Portsmouth Lodge was being formed and how it made its debut in the realms of Elkdom. He gave a short history of the lodge and recalled the names of the charter members, much to the pleasure of all those present.

Edwin Gableman followed Judge Osborn, and his brief talk was along happy lines and he was applauded as he sat down. Mr. Gableman talked of the various phases of Elkdom and made a neat little talk. Song Birds Then Fluttered Forth

Then there were solos by Sam Williams, Francis Mack and Chester Higgins, of this city, and Miam Brumberg and Conrad Neekamp, of Ironton. They were all recalled and sang many of the latest ballads. On behalf of the Ironton visitors present, Mr. Neekamp made a little speech, and it was a gem. He proved himself an after-dinner speaker of no mean ability, and urged each and every member to attend the Apple Show in Ironton next September as the guest of Ironton Elks.

A number of short talks were made; all the Elk minstrel songs were sung, and the night will always be remembered as one fraught with the keenest of pleasure, in which a band of jolly good fellows fittingly celebrated the annual inspection, installation and the initiation of a class.

The banquet was served in six courses by Caterer Jacob Pfau, and it was faultless. Assisted by a number of waiters and with Reuben Smith in charge of them, everything moved along without a hitch. Covers were laid for 135, and Mr. Pfau covered himself with glory, each guest being carefully looked after. The committee on arrangements included Messrs. Robert Lewis, E. K. S. Clinkensbeard and Chalmers Davis, and they performed yeoman service. It was a big affair, but was handled with skill and diplomacy.

S. E. Kiser, Miam Brumberg, Earl Ketter and Conrad Neekamp, of Ironton, attended the festivities.

FEELING BLUE?

The sufferer from kidney and bladder disease is despondent and down hearted, because it is hard to be anything else with such troubles. Cheer up, folks! Here's THE remedy! When terrible pains are in your back, as if some monster were squeezing your kidneys with a grip of steel. When you have violent head-aches and don't sleep well at nights. Or, if you do fall asleep, you may be awakened several times to urinate. When you ache all over, and sharp, knife-like pains shoot through your body. Or your feet, hands or joints swell up. It is rheumatism or dropsy or a forerunner of terrible Bright's Disease.

Cheer up! When you feel like this get busy. Go to your drug-gist and get a box of the pure, original GOLD MEDAL Haavlem Oil Capsules, imported fresh every month by the American Office of the Genuine Haavlem Oil Mfg. Co., 194 Water St., New York City. Pleasant and easy to take and carry in your pocket, this world-wide household remedy will chase out of your system the uric acid poison. The good old-fashioned Haavlem Oil—GOLD MEDAL—in capsule form, is the National Remedy of Holland. Three sizes, 25c, 50c and $1.00. Money refunded if they do not help you.

ANOTHER ROBBERY AT APPEL FARM

Roy Lynn's blood hounds were used to trace a sneak thief who had forced the lock of a trunk at the Sam Lamsford home on the James Appel farmplace north of Leesville, and stolen $10 Wednesday evening.

Mr. Lamsford had just finished his day's work on the farm and gone to his home, which is located on top of a hill when he made the discovery. The robbery had occurred during the short time his wife was out in the garden.

The hounds in charge of Trainer Tom Smith very readily took up the trail which led southward and over another very rocky and steep hill with an abundance of underbrush for a distance of several miles but was lost within 100 yards of a farm house in that section. A few weeks ago 60 some chickens were stolen from the Appel farm place.

Awoke To Find Negro Entering Her House

Mrs. Alexander Holmes, wife of a teamster, awoke about midnight Wednesday night to catch a glimpse of a negro prowler in the act of entering their home on Robinson avenue near Offner street, through a side door. Her screams frightened him away and police who were called made a search for him, but without result.

The negro is believed to have been the same who in the early part of the evening was first noticed standing in the alley at the rear of Steelworker Archie Moore's home. He later entered the yard. Mrs. Moore saw him and he ran from the premises. The same negro had been seen surveying the Moore home about 6 o'clock in the evening.

SAYS NEW BOSTON HARBORS A BLACK HAND GANG

Writer Claims That A Woman Is Held; Italians Are Scared

A band of Black Hands is working in New Boston, and they not only extort money from unwary countrymen who fall into their clutches, but they have appropriated at least one woman to their gang, if a letter received by the director of public safety is to be credited. The letter also charges that beer is being sold at New Boston without a license, and the writer, who did not sign his name, says if the local authorities do not take up the matter he will appeal to President Wilson.

The letter was written in Italian, and when received by Clerk Fred Baesman he sent it out to be translated. The word Black Hand was conspicuous in two places, and when the eyes of several local Italians fell on the scrawny words they daily refused to translate it, saying they did not wish to get into trouble. By going to several Italians and asking each to read a separate part of the letter, a translation was finally secured, however.

The writer says that he came to New Boston and fell into the hands of a Black Hand dealer in women. He says he saw a valise in which were a number of revolvers, stiletos and other weapons, and was threatened with death if he told what happened to him. He was made to pay $10 for one night's lodging. He gave the name of a woman whom, he says, the gang holds, and asks that an effort be made to secure her liberty.

The letter has been referred to local Italian State officials for further action.

Robert J. Minnery, aged 48 years, a foreman in the planing mill at the N. & W. Terminals, was seriously stabbed by William A. Patton, 33, a machine-helper, following an argument about some work Thursday morning.

Minnery was cut six times, the knife just missing his heart, the blade penetrating the flesh just underneath that vital organ, but his worst cut was in the left side, the knife penetrating clear through the wall of his body. Two other cuts were received in the side, one in the back and one on the head.

Minnery was rushed to the emergency hospital at the R. R. Y. M. C. A. building, where his wounds were dressed by Dr. Albert Herditt. He was later able to go to his home at No. 1822 Eleventh street unassisted, while his assailant was locked up at the city prison pending the outcome of the victim's wounds.

Patton made no effort to escape, disregarding the advice of some fellow workmen to skip to Kenton. He instead walked to the planing mill office to make a report of the trouble, but Foreman William Cramer was absent and he was asked to wait. A few moments later Earl B. Simpson, special officer at the "Y" entered and placed Patton under arrest. A piece of gun pipe with which Minnery struck Patton a couple of times across the left hand and arm, according to the laborer, was handed to Officer Simpson by an employee and was turned over to Police Chief W. T. McCarthy and brought to police headquarters. Patton had a cut across the palm of his hand which he said was inflicted with the gun pipe, and also an ugly bruise on the arm.

As soon as the prison doors closed on him Patton requested that his wife be notified. He is the father of four children, and with his family lives at the rear of the Dick Brennan home on Kendall avenue, between Eighth and Ninth streets. The family came to Portsmouth from Garrison, Ky., four years ago and Patton had been employed at the Terminals for the past two years. He submitted quite a list of witnesses which he asked to be subpoenaed for his hearing. Minnery also furnished a big number of witnesses.

At the N. & W. general foreman's office it was stated that Patton had not been attending to his duties and when reprimanded therefor by the foreman began cursing him. Minnery then notified him he would turn in his time at noon, meaning he had been discharged, and Patton attacked him with the knife. Patton, it was said, had acted the part of the aggressor.

Patton said that Minnery had singled him out in finding fault, and he had no sooner finished unloading several trucks of heavy lumber when Minnery was at him again to get busy. Patton asked him why it was he did not give the same close attention to Sam Jones and a young man who is Minnery's nephew. He said he directed Minnery's attention to Jones and his whole gang, but Minnery stretched out on a truck. This angered Minnery, he said, and he walked away, later whispering something to Jones. Patton said he was at work again when Minnery stepped up to him and told him to go up to the office and get his time. He said he asked him to wait an instant as he had something to tell him, but Minnery refused to listen, and picking up a board used for measuring lumber struck him twice, cracking it. He then went for the gun pipe, and it was then, and after warning him to let him alone, that he whipped out his pocket-knife and began defending himself. He claimed he had been struck four times before he started to use the knife.

BLACK EYE IS A MYSTERY

Conflicting reports are heard as how "Turk" O'Brien, chief at the Finches cafe, came to that beautiful black eye Wednesday night. Some say he fell down some new steps at his boarding place on Tenth street while others declare that he was hurt trying to ride a mule as a result of a wager and was hurled against a tree. "Turk" himself remains silent on the subject, except to say it was not done by a sub, Zeppelin or a Taube.

Complete Plans For Big S. of V. Meeting

All arrangements for the big district meeting of the Sons of Veterans at Ben Hur hall, corner Fifth and Chillicothe streets Friday evening have been completed. Everybody is on the job to make it an event long to be remembered by the soldier circles.

Among those who will form a reception committee to meet Commander Aughinbaugh and staff at N. & W. depot upon their arrival are Dr. O. D. Donaldson, Judge T. C. Beatty, Filmore Musser, Gilbert P. Dods, Capt. George S. Carroll, W. B. Robe, C. C. Bennett, and a host of others.

After the big meeting closes Friday the visiting Sons of Veterans will be taken up to Sons of Veterans hall, where they will be ing to assist aged comrades and their ladies up the stairs to the hall. The members of Camp urgently desire that every comrade in the city together with their ladies attend this meeting. Arrangements have been made to take care of all and there is plenty of room in the large hall, and just oodles of refreshments.

During Friday afternoon the visitors will be taken over city and vicinity in automobiles of members of the camp. The upstate men have expressed a desire to see a real city and they will be accommodated.

After the big meeting closes Friday the visiting Sons of Veterans will be taken up to Sons of Veterans hall, where they will be initiated into the Royal Order of Bolo Bolo in the Great Khwan. It was intended to put this on in the larger hall of the Ben Hur but the safety department positively refused to allow the animals, lumps, snakes and reptiles to be transferred through the streets. Secretary J. Edgar Sherry will be the star victim, as he has been so rash as to give it his opinion that "there's nothing new in lodge doings" and the fellows here will try to show him.

Commander Aughinbaugh is also expected to get the full prescription. The Camp plans to make a full night of it, with lots doing all the time.

The Effects of Opiates.

THAT INFANTS are peculiarly susceptible to opium and its various preparations, all of which are narcotics, is well known. Even in the smallest doses, if continued, these opiates cause changes in the functions and growth of the cells which are likely to become permanent, causing imbecility, mental perversion, a craving for alcohol or narcotics in later life. Nervous diseases, such as intractable nervous dyspepsia and lack of staying powers are a result of dealing with opiates or narcotics to keep children quiet in their infancy. The rule among physicians is that children should never receive opiates in the smallest doses for more than a day at a time, and only then if unavoidable.

The administration of Anodynes, Drops, Cordials, Soothing Syrup and other narcotics to children by any but a physician can be too strongly deprecated, and the druggist should not be a party to it. Children who are ill need the attention of a physician, and it is nothing less than a crime to dose them with opiates.

Castoria contains no narcotics if it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. Gentian Castoria always bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

BANDITS LOOT FREIGHT TRAIN

$50,000 WORTH OF MERCHANDISE IS CARRIED AWAY

Buffalo, N. Y., April 15.—A dozen bandits held up a New York Central fast freight train at Sun-Town, nine miles east of North Tonawanda, early today, stripped several cars of bolted silk valued at $50,000 and sped away in an automobile truck upon which they had loaded their plunder.

The bandits were armed with repeating rifles and automatic pistols and fired several shots at the crew. No one was injured.

A posse of detectives, mounted police and patrolmen from this city, Niagara Falls and North Tonawanda were at the scene shortly after the holdup, but up to late hour this morning no arrests had been made. When first seen the robbers were headed toward this city.

After forcing the engine crew to uncouple the locomotive, and run it a short distance down the tracks, the engine and the three other members of the crew were lined up against a box car and placed under guard of a single bandit while the others looted the merchandise cars. Four automobile five-ton trucks were in waiting and were quickly loaded with the booty.

Engineer Goss of Syracuse, escaped the guard and running a fusillade of shot reached his engine in safety. He made a record run into Suspension Bridge, eight miles away and gave the alarm. Police and armed citizens hurried to the scene but the robbers had made good their escape.

The robbery was the most daring of its kind that has ever occurred in this section of the country and the amount of plunder far exceeds in value the proceeds of any other freight train robbery in the history of eastern railroad.

POPE IN LETTER PRAISES KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS FOR $500,000 ENDOWMENT

Washington, April 15.—A letter from Pope Benedict XV was read at the exercises today commemorating the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Catholic University of America. The letter speaks in high terms of the work of the university and of the gift of $500,000 from the Knights of Columbus for the endowment of scholarships.

"To Our Beloved Sons, James Cardinal Gibbons, Archbishop of Baltimore, John Cardinal Farley, Archbishop of New York, William Cardinal O'Connell, Archbishop of Boston, and to Our other Venerable Brethren, the Archbishops and Bishops of the United States of America, Benedict XV, Pope.

"Beloved Sons and Venerable Brethren, Greeting and Apostolic Benediction: We have recently learned that preparations were being made at Washington for observing with due solemnity the twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of the Catholic University, and that the celebration, graced by your presence and by that of distinguished members of the laity, would be quite in keeping with the singularly happy character of the occasion. That you, Beloved Sons and Venerable Brethren, should above all rejoice at this prosperity of the university is obvious to every one who realizes that the beginnings and the gratifying progress of this seat of learning are owing especially to your wise and timely care. And yet this joy of yours is not so peculiar to you but that we also may in some wise share it. For we love, may we dearly cherish the American people, for as they are with the vigor of youth and second to none in efficiency of action and thought; and as we earnestly desire that an ever widening path to the highest level of human achievement may open before them, so we cannot but feel the deepest pleasure at everything that furthers their progress.

"Still, in your tireless endeavors you aimed not merely at enriching the mind with learning; what you chiefly sought was to imbue it with that heavenly wisdom whose light cannot be put out, and with which all good things shall come to your flocks. These proofs indeed of your pastoral solicitude must appeal to every fair-minded observer as worthy of the highest commendation and deserving of the appreciation and support of your fellow citizens, especially of your Catholic people and in particular of your clergy.

"In this connection we will not withhold our praise from the Knights of Columbus who, as you lately informed us, by their splendid contribution to the funds of the university have carried into effect their wisely conceived design of extending to young men less favored by fortune the advantages of a solid and at the same time a Christian education. This noble example of beneficence, which all good men approve, we hold up for imitation and generous emulation to all who are blessed with means; and we heartily wish that you yourselves, Beloved Sons and Venerable Brethren, will advance the cause of the university by sending to it students whose superior qualities of mind and disposition give promise of the best results. In addition to other advantages which are thence to be expected, the clergy of the Church in America will receive one and the same culture and training, and this—we speak to those who know by experience—means without doubt a clergy, whose piety will bear richer fruit because of their more active and more harmonious co-operation for a common purpose.

"This blessing we implore with prayerful instance from God; and as an earnest of heavenly favors and a token of our good will, we most lovingly in the Lord bestow upon you all, Beloved Sons and Venerable Brethren, upon the Rector, the professors and the students of the university, and upon the Knights of Columbus as well, our Apostolic Benediction.

"Given at St. Peter's Rome, this thirteenth day of March, 1915, in the first year of our Pontificate.

"BENEDICT XV, POPE."

MISUNDERSTOOD SIGNALS; FREIGHT CRASHES INTO CAR

Detroit, Michigan, April 15.—To the experience of a student motorman is charged the death of four teen persons, ten of them women, who were killed last night in a collision between a street car and a freight train on the tracks of the Detroit, Toledo and Ironport railway in the western part of the city. According to the police, the play activity of the student's instructor also contributed to the accident.

Twenty-eight other persons were injured, four of them so seriously that their death is believed to be certain. Early today only seven of the dead had been identified and it was said at the morgue some of the bodies are so terribly mutilated that their identification will be well-nigh impossible.

With a heavy load of passengers, homeward bound, the car, handled by a student motorman, J. C. Westman, halted as it reached the railway crossing. The conductor, run ahead, and seeing a string of freight cars pushed by a switch engine approaching the intersection, signalled the motorman to wait until it had passed. The notice misunderstood; the signal and turned on the power. The car started down the slight incline leading to the railway tracks. When too late the motorman shut off the current and applied the brakes, but the car slid along until it stopped directly in the path of the oncoming train.

The leading freight car crashed into the street car, striking it squarely in the middle.

The railroad tracks at the place the accident occurred occupy a narrow street. As the car swept away from the crossing one end of it struck and demolished the front of the Detroit station, which stood on one corner, and the other end tore out a part of a grocery store on the opposite side of the street.

Nearly 200 feet were traveled before the freight cars were brought to a stop, and along this distance terribly mangled bodies of the dead and injured were strewn.

Others caught in the wreckage of the car were not extricated until several hours after the crash. The roof of the street car remained practically intact, but the remainder of the car was reduced to a mass of splinters. Some of the bodies were torn to bits. One woman was hurled completely over the roof of the railway station. A child was found on the roof of a freight car 40 feet away.

The crews of the car and of the freight train were taken to police headquarters, and after an investigation Westman and the regular motorman, Richard Vahlde, were detained on a charge of manslaughter.

A majority of the victims are foreigners whose homes are in the River Rouge and Delray suburbs of Detroit.

DIVERS EXAMINE SUBMARINE F-4

Honolulu, April 15.—The superstructure of the submarine F-4 is raised in and the hull is filled with water, according to a report made by Chief Gunner's Mate George D. Stillson, who ran yesterday descended the wreck after Frank Crilly, a diver, had located the submarine early in the day.

Stillson, who made a partial survey of the hull, reported that, aside from the damage to the superstructure, he was unable to find any other holes and the top plates were not crushed in.

One of the lines used by the searchers in their attempt to locate the F-4 had fouled in the superstructure. Work was to be begun today, it was announced, to free the fouled line to make others fast to the submarine.

Two lines are already fast to the wreck. Neither Crilly, who was under water two hours, nor Stillson, who was submerged for an hour and a half, suffered ill-effects, although, according to official announcement by officials, the submarine is lying at a depth of 288 feet.

A board of investigators named yesterday by Admiral Chas. D. McGord, commandant of the Honolulu naval station, made an examination of the submarine F-1, F-2 and F-3, the remaining vessels of the fleet stationed at Honolulu.

BLOOMER GIRLS HAVE ORGANIZED

The Bloomer Girls baseball team held a meeting Wednesday night and organized for this season.

They have been practicing for the past two weeks and expect to begin playing regular by the first of May. The team is composed of some pretty good players most of them having played on the team when it was first organized during the strike last year. The lineup is as follows:

Sophia Barber, 1B; Clara Brunsfield, 2B; Lulu Hicks, SS; Bess Rivera, 3B; Robert Matthews, P; Clarence Sowards, C; Edna Prater, CF; Anna Holmes, 1F; Naudie Hicks, 1F.

Anyone wishing a tryout can apply to Manager Bess Rivera or Captain Clara Brunsfield, 1403 Robinson Ave.

MANSFIELD & PREDIGER WINNERS AT DUCK PINS

Ralph Mansfield and Byron Prediger sorely demonstrated at the Play House last night the fact that they are some artists when it comes to rolling duck pins, they defeating Albert Wurster and Bob McGorkle in a five game match by a margin of 50 pins. Mansfield and McGorkle captured but one game, the first, after which Mansfield and Prediger left their opponents for the rest. Mansfield had a great night, averaging 136 1-5, a record that will doubtless stand for many days to come. The scores were good and what an audience after and McGorkle were defeated they are game and propose to again issue a challenge to the champions. The scores:

Name	1	2	3	4	5
McGorkle	338	110	107	101	106
Wurster	100	108	97	101	118
Totals	538	227	204	202	224

Opening In Milwaukee

Milwaukee, Wis., April 15.—With the promise of fair weather an auspicious opening of the American Association baseball season in Milwaukee was looked for this morning, the home team being opposed by the Minneapolis club. "Cy" Young or Hoyak and Hughes, it was said would be the battery for Milwaukee and Williams and Sullivan for the visitors.

FOUR NEW MANAGERS START SEASON

When the major league baseball season opened on Wednesday four new managers were in the saddle. They were Roger Bresnahan of the Chicago Cubs, Clarence Rowland of the Chicago White Sox, Pat Moran of the Phillies, and Bill Donovan of the New York Yankees. Three of these men have had many years' experience in the big leagues; the fourth, Clarence Rowland, is a young man untitled in major league experience. Much is expected of Bresnahan, Donovan and Moran, as they have already shown their worth. As to Rowland, the critics are saying little and watching much.

BASEBALL POT SEETHING IN IRONTON

(Irontonian)

At a meeting of the Ironton ball club directors, held last evening many matters of importance were discussed and the business of starting off the season was put under way very nicely.

It was announced after the meeting that the Dayton Central League team which has been cleaning up for Columbus in the American Association, was likely to be the attraction at the local venue next Saturday and Sunday. This has not been definitely arranged but it is thought that the games are almost certain.

The directors yesterday decided to secure the services of Frank Brown as a ground keeper.

The ticket proposition was taken up and it was decided to sell a book of twenty-five tickets, good for any game for $2.50 and to sell children's tickets at ten cents per. It was further decided to put the book of tickets "Hotels"—for a dollar, a real bargain—on the market today and an effort will be made to dispose of a large number of them.

An effort will be made to sell sign upon the fence to merchants.

Bids for the stand privileges will be received by the directors.

Boost For Braves

Grantland Rice in a current magazine says:

When one looks at the Braves' club under fire or at work, there comes an impression of the mental and the psychological rather than the physical. And psychologically no ball club was ever better primed for a laurel-crowned campaign.

For observe—if the Braves are away in a winning start (the Braves are away with confidence and ability they already have. It will take an iron wall, re-constructed with concrete to stop their rush. But if they get a poor start and are still lagging by June, they will have the memory of July and August, 1914, to keep them buoyed up with the knowledge that a game ball club is never beaten. They will have the memory of certain ball clubs that, back in July, 1914, were shaken, gamboled behind the leaders and four months later, because it refused to quit, was the champion ball club of the considerably shot-up and devastated world. And it won't be a thought of what some one else was able to do, but of what they were able to do themselves. So in the psychological by-path, the Braves are doubly guarded with inspiration either way they turn. The good that men do lives after them as well as the evil, contrary to the opinion expressed by a well-known bard of some few seasons back. For the good the Braves did for themselves and the game last summer will be a worthy inspiration for the battles that still await ahead.

TO PLAY BALL IN CHINA

Honolulu, H. I., April 15.—Under the patronage of the Chinese government and with the personal assistance of Wu Tingfang, former Chinese minister to the United States, a baseball team of American-born Chinese is on its way now on the steamer Mangolia bound for Shanghai.

Shanghai by way of the Philippines and Japan. Their expenses while in China will be met by the Chinese government. The team will tour the principal cities of the interior with the object of introducing American athletics for the physical development of the youth in China.

GOVERNOR TO ARE SENT TO PITCH FIRST BALL

Columbus, April 15.—With a new manager, Rudy Holsvick, to direct their play and Louisville as their opponents, Columbus American Association players were ready for the first championship game of the season here today. Sellenberger or Bayes will be selected to pitch for Columbus while Northrup will be on the mound for the visitors. Governor Williams is expected to pitch the first ball. This is Holsvick's day in honor of Manager Holsvick, who is a former Columbus player.

Team To Be Fast

"Ironton is going to have one swell ball club this year," said Conrad J. Nookkamp, who came down from Ironton last night to attend the Elk festivities.

"Manager Dick Smith has signed up many players and the team will be just as fast as last year despite the fact that the salary limit has been cut to $1,000. There is a lot of enthusiasm up my way and I am confident that Ironton is going to stage a real come back in the baseball world this summer."

ARE LOYAL TO REDS

Portsmouth fans are loyal to Cincinnati.

Practically all of them were pulling for the Reds to win the initial struggle with the Pirates Wednesday. The Reds have a word of loyal supporters, but none as more loyal than the Portsmouth contingent. Nothing would please the bugs here any more than to have the Reds win a National League pennant. Here's hoping.

Lefty James Will Pitch

Cleveland April 15.—While bright skies greeted the opening day of the American Association baseball season here today, a cool breeze from the lake gave promise that it would be rather chilly in the stands at Somers Park when the Cleveland and Indianapolis teams line up for the initial fray this afternoon. Manager Jack Knight of the local Spiders expected to use Lefty James in the box.

Overcome By Heat

Pearl Hewitt, who is one of the city's best known mill men, was overcome by heat at the Whitaker-Gleason plant a few nights ago.

FOUR CLUB LEAGUE

Paducah, Ky., April 15.—President Cox of the Kentucky, Illinois and Tennessee Baseball League issued a statement here today declaring the project of expanding into a six-club organization had been abandoned, and that the season would open May 11 with a membership composed of Owensboro, Henderson, Paducah and Cairo. It had been proposed to include Murphysboro and one other Illinois town.

Is After Job

Chillicothe, April 15.—An application for a position with the local team has been received from Chief McCut, who is now in Portsmouth. Chief is a free agent, but owing to the already large number of first base candidates, it will be impossible to give him a tryout.

WALSH IN SHAPE

Los Angeles, April 15.—Ed Walsh, the Chicago American pitcher, was told today by the medical expert who has been treating his arm that he would be in shape to return to Chicago within three weeks and take his regular turn in the box.

City Has Chance To Get Battery

A battery for Portsmouth! Sure! Every fellow rises up on his hind legs and says "aye." For years we've depended solely upon our warship. Bono for defense, and every time the Japs, John Bulls, Dutch, "Froggies" or what not, begin to get humprous we've quaked in our fear that a cantankerous crawfish might tickle an ungodly notion to yank the Hon-ne down into the dark 16-inch abyssal depths of the muddy Ohio and leave us absolutely defenseless. But with a 42-centimeter planted on each of the high knobs surrounding our fair city and a few scattered around promiscuously over our public squares we could sit back on our Honest Scrap, make faces at the other fellows and tell 'em we were a mule and didn't give a "dern" how soon they "mixed" with us.

Lieut. Col. Park F. Yingling, commandant of Department of Ohio Sons of Veterans Reserves, the military branch of the order, writes from Cleveland that it will be impossible for him to be here at the big district meeting of the Sons of Veterans, Friday evening, as he has been ordered by Major Gen. Amiel of Philadelphia, National Commandant of the Reserves, to Indianapolis to instruct the Indiana Reserves, how to prevent the governors, mayors, sheriffs, police cops, and others from carrying off the state while the inhabitants are getting their forty winks.

Col. Yingling states that he is looking for a city in Ohio to install a battery and believes Portsmouth would be a good location. He will come here this spring to meet with Vienna Camp and see if this can not be done.

In meantime the board of trade or some of our multi-millionaires should get "next" to this. The Sons of Veterans and Spanish-American war veterans can be depended upon to furnish the fighting men to equip the battery, if the few millions needed to furnish the 42-centimeters can be raised.

CLEARING THE WAY.

In proposing to have a clear understanding as to what claims property owners will set up, if the flood wall should be extended, before the extension is actually entered upon, the city is displaying a wisdom and prudence that does not ordinarily go with public business.

The property owners of the section to be protected by the flood wall either want or do not want the protection. They will show which way they are disposed by the extent of the damages they ask, that is provided the damage issue is put to them as a condition precedent. If it should appear that in the aggregate the section immediately protected will suffer more injury through the flood wall than it will through the frequent visitation of floods, it follows, as a matter of course, that it would be folly to give the alleged protection. So it is best the matter should be determined before action that finally commits to the erection of the wall is taken. One thing is certain, the claims for damages before the work is underway will not be larger than if asked for afterwards.

MORE VICE DISCOVERED.

Awe-stricken and horrified, the Roanoke World-News in a shuddering column of editorial, discusses frightful conditions revealed in that city. A grand jury reports its discovery that vast sums of money are wagered, won and lost in the local pool rooms. It is credibly testified that sometimes as much as an entire dollar has been bet on a single game of pool and that stakes of twenty-five cents each are not infrequent. Hot sports, truly!

The World-News is very sad over these demonstrations of depravity and wild license. It inquires mournfully how such things can be, sighs most dolefully and seems to indicate the opinion that pool rooms should be closed and men forbidden from the pernicious vice of poking balls into pockets and risking their lives, their liberties and their sacred fortunes on the comparative skill and luck of the players.

Probably the innocence of this contemporary is uninformed of the fact that people who wish to gamble do not need any special equipment of tools or appliances or provision of places. Gambling can be and is done anywhere and with anything. Once the game of "Fly Loo" was very fashionable. It was played by the simple process of each of several men putting on a table a lump of sugar, the man on whom lump the first fly lit taking the entire pot. Crack Loo is played by tossing coins in the air, the winner being he whose coin falls most directly upon any crack in the floor. It is said that a certain spectacular character of prominence in the financial world won hundreds of thousands of dollars matching pennies, and the school boys play at odds or evens with marbles. We close the public gaming houses on the theory that they tend to idleness and extravagance, encourage waste and dissipation and give the professional gamblers opportunity to despoil the imprudent citizen. When we undertake to prevent every possibility of gambling we undertake a large contract. To perform it, we must forbid every game or sport in which there is any element of chance or skill or test of speed or strength of men or animals.

When we become too minute in matters of morals we make morality itself disreputable and unpopular. Even religion has been made contemptible some times by having its rules carried to pettiness and by endeavors to enforce them too rigidly. Both the imposition, intended originally to scrutinize conduct and to judge of orthodoxy, and the Puritan code, undertaken to regulate such matters as the shape and color of clothing and the cutting of hair, were followed by violent rebellions and periods of moral laxity and of open and defiant vice. We must leave something to individual taste, responsibility, standards and habits of thought. When we invoke the law to force all men to comply with some fixed system or set of requirements, we are going upon very perilous ground and risking serious and permanent disaster.

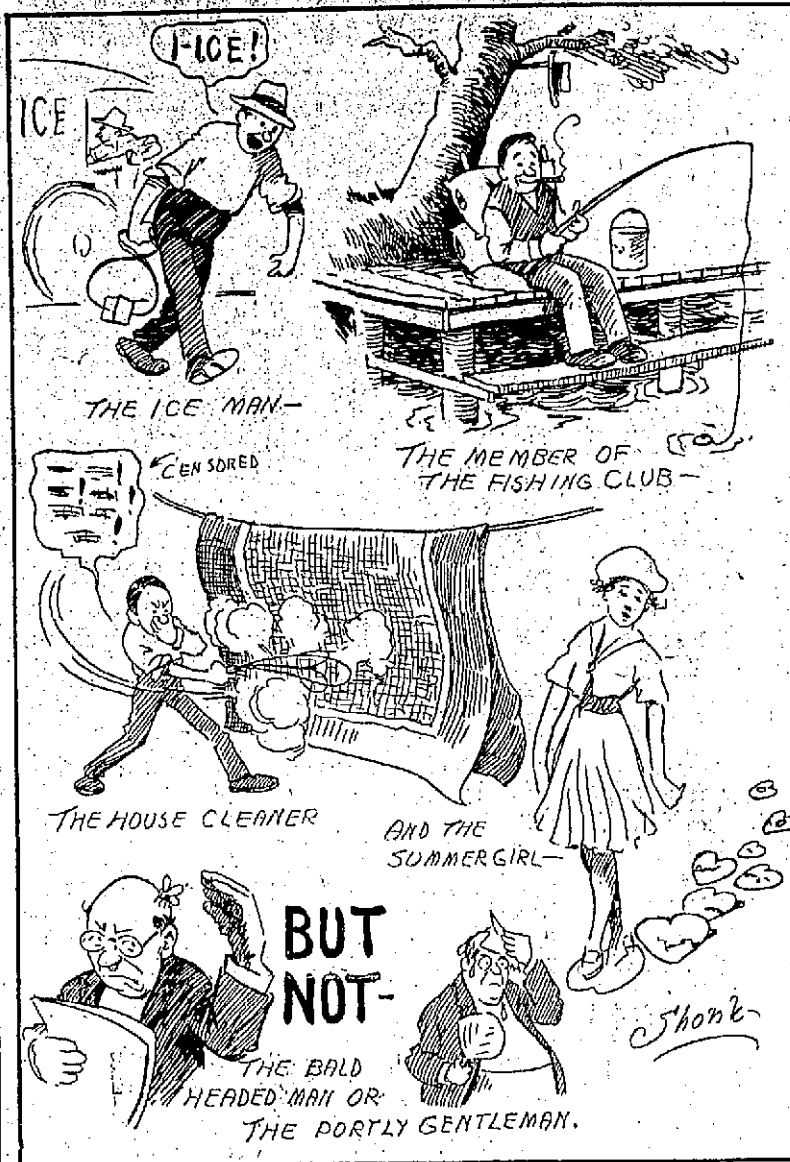

The farmers are going after an experiment station in real earnest. They expected the city, which will pay three-fifths of the cost, to vote for them the last time. However, the city has become a bit wary with its experience in voting paved roads and it fooled 'em, also scoring heavily against the station.

See "them" huzz wagons parked around government square, these days. Well, watch 'em scatter when the grangers come to town in a few days and set up a produce market. And still there are some fellows out in the woods who protest them city fellows don't treat 'em right.

It listens like this part of Southern Ohio was rushing forward when we read so much on the construction of new railroad and interurban lines. We'll get that Cincinnati-to-Pittsburg traction a whole lot sooner than we think.

Wednesday was a real spring day. For this much thanks.

PEOPLE WHO ARE NOW COMING INTO THEIR OWN

VON BERNSTORFF'S PROTEST.

(The Cincinnati Times Star.)

Count Von Bernstorff's memorandum of protest to the American Government, the full text of which was made public Sunday night, will greatly live forever as one of Germany's state papers. The whole tone of the note is unusual. Not only the methods but the motives of our Government are subjected to blunt attack. The criticism is neither temperate nor fair.

Americans have been aware for some time of a growing irritation in Germany at the sale of ammunition by this country to the allies. It is not strange that the man in the street in Germany should feel that way about it. He does not understand international law and under the strain of war he does not stop long enough to realize that if Germany instead of England had control of the sea, our markets would be open to Germany rather than to Germany's enemies.

But men of high rank in the German government like Count Von Bernstorff do understand international law and they should realize that it is the course of events in Europe, not any bias on our side, which keeps American trade going with the allies while it is practically barred from Germany. It is somewhat surprising, therefore, to read an official communication to the American Government which is plainly influenced by prejudice and irritability born of the war, and not based on sound judgment of actual conditions.

Kansas claims she cut her liquor bill by twenty-nine million dollars, last year, and still claims to be the best prohibition state of 'em all.

"Did it ever occur to you," asked the man who always stops you on the street, "that these women's dresses ain't cut suitable? No; don't you see this is no reason to prepare for high water."

True, it's never too late to mend. Here is the Cincinnati Times-Star, once notorious as a George B. Cox organ, changed into a very independent and courageous sort of a journal.

West Virginia has gone completely broke, but with a profound complacency she is letting the other fellow worry thereover.

Ambassador Count Von Bernstorff talks like a man who is anxious to be invited to take a walk.

Some people are said to have a fortune in their feet. Jesse Willard was more fortunate in having one in his fist.

One hundred and fifty thousand dollars in building permits, for the first three months of the year, isn't a bad beginning.

Willis appears to have caught a tartar in that man Bryson. And the joke is Bryson is an ex-Republican postmaster.

Difficult to Please

They had been engaged only a few weeks, but a little coolness had arisen between them.

"There is nothing that nukes me so thoroughly angry," she cried, tears of rage in her blue eyes, "as to have anyone contradict me. I just simply hate to be contradicted."

"Well," he said in a conciliatory tone, "then I won't contradict you any more, Jewel."

"I don't believe you love me," she asserted.

"I don't," he admitted.

"You are a perfectly hateful thing!" she cried.

"I know it," he replied.

"You're trying to tease me, aren't you, Jim?" she queried.

"Yes," he conceded.

She was silent for a moment. Then she said: "Well, I certainly do despise a man who is weak enough to let a woman dictate to him. A man ought to have a mind of his own."—Harper's Magazine.

The Last Thing Played

"It is marvelous," began Green before a goodly audience, "how coming events cast their shadows before themselves. Why, only the other day there was a fire at our church, and I bet none of you can tell me what was the last thing played on the organ."

"Lost Chord," ventured one.

Green shook his head.

"Was it 'Funst'?" suggested the man of opera.

"All wrong," answered Green.

"Well, what on earth was it?" asked one impatiently.

Green made good his line of retreat, then came his answer.

"The hose!" he managed to shout, amid a hail of missiles.—From Answers.

ANIMAL SCHOOL

One summer day Miss Julia Jay remarked, "It is a sin when it's so lovely out of doors that we have to stay in. I'll tell you what I'll dare you all to do right now," said she, "Let's lock the school-house door, and then let's hide the school-house key."

The children said, "That will be fun; let's do it right away! But which of us will hide the key?" "I will," said Julia Jay. "I'll put it in the branches of the very tallest tree; Professor Crab will never think of looking there," said she.

They ran right quick and looked the door and gave Miss Julia Jay the key, which she took in her bill, and gaily flew away. And as the children all stood there a-laughing fit to kill, They saw that old Professor Crab was coming up the hill.

Said he, "Good morning, children; what is this fuss about?" "We can't have any school today," said they, "because we are locked out."

"We'll go to school as usual; I have an extra key."

And sure enough that sly old Crab unlocked the door with ease. "It's well, in case of accident," said he, "to have another key. But how the other key was lost, I do not know," said he, "Unless perhaps?" (and here he smiled) "it flew up in a tree."

Miss Julia Jay heard every word the Professor said. For she was sitting in a tree directly overhead.

Her bill flew open with surprise; the key fell to the ground. "Ah, ha!" said good Professor Crab, "the missing key is found."

"And now," remarked Professor Crab, "you may all go inside. And you Miss Julia Jay, come down, you need not try to hide. I have a bit of extra work for you to do," said he.

"You must stay one hour after school and practice writing KEY."

Thought Julia Jay, "I don't believe I care much for this joke. It didn't go as I had planned; I'm sorry that I spoke. But I won't try another trick," declared Miss Julia Jay. And furthermore, she's kept her word, I'm very glad to say.

answer any questions that might be put to him.

A voice came from the audience: "You seem to know a lot, sir, about a farmer's difficulties. May I ask a question about a momentous one?"

"Certainly," replied the candidate, nervously.

"How can you tell a bad egg?" went on the merciless voice.

"The candidate waited until the laughter died away. Then he replied:

"If I had anything to tell a bad egg, I think I should break it gently."

Quality Versus Quantity

"The master of the house, having a taste for game chickens, paid $25 for a pair which pleased him, and had them put in the back lot.

Some one said to the cook, "About Maria, have you seen the $25 chickens?"

"Yes, in I've seen 'em."

"What do you think of them?"

"Well, she replied emphatically, "or chicken would have to be as big as 'er cow before I'd pay $25 for him!"

Will Close Business

HERE'S PROOF

A Portsmouth Citizen Tells of His Experience

M. M. Huffman, 1025 14th St., Portsmouth, says: "Kidney trouble came on me unawares and before I realized it, I was in its grasp. I had to be assisted up and down and I couldn't stoop to tie my shoes. At night I was racked with pain and in the morning had to be helped up. I was feeling about as badly as was possible. I could just barely hobble around the house on crutches. My kidneys were in bad shape and were very sluggish. I doctored and used different medicines but without relief. Finally I began taking Doan's Kidney Pills and I improved from the first. After I had finished ten boxes, I was cured and haven't had any trouble since. I then threw away my crutches and once more walked erect. I am now cured."

NO TROUBLE SINCE

On October 21st, 1914, Mr. Huffman said: "Today I am feeling as though I was twenty years younger. I was cured of kidney trouble by Doan's Kidney Pills and have enjoyed the best of health ever since."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Huffman had. Foster-McMillan Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

EAT LESS MEAT IF BACK HURTS

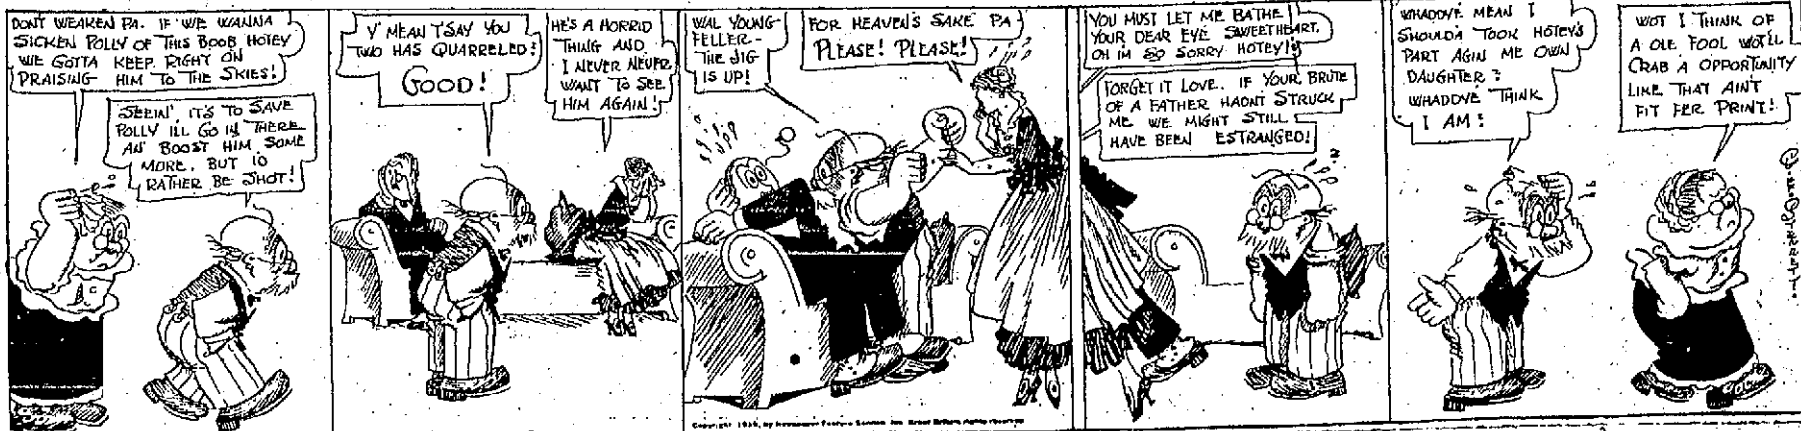

Take a glass of Salts to flush kidneys if bladder bothers you—Drink lots of water.

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat creates the kidney stones, gets sluggish, clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

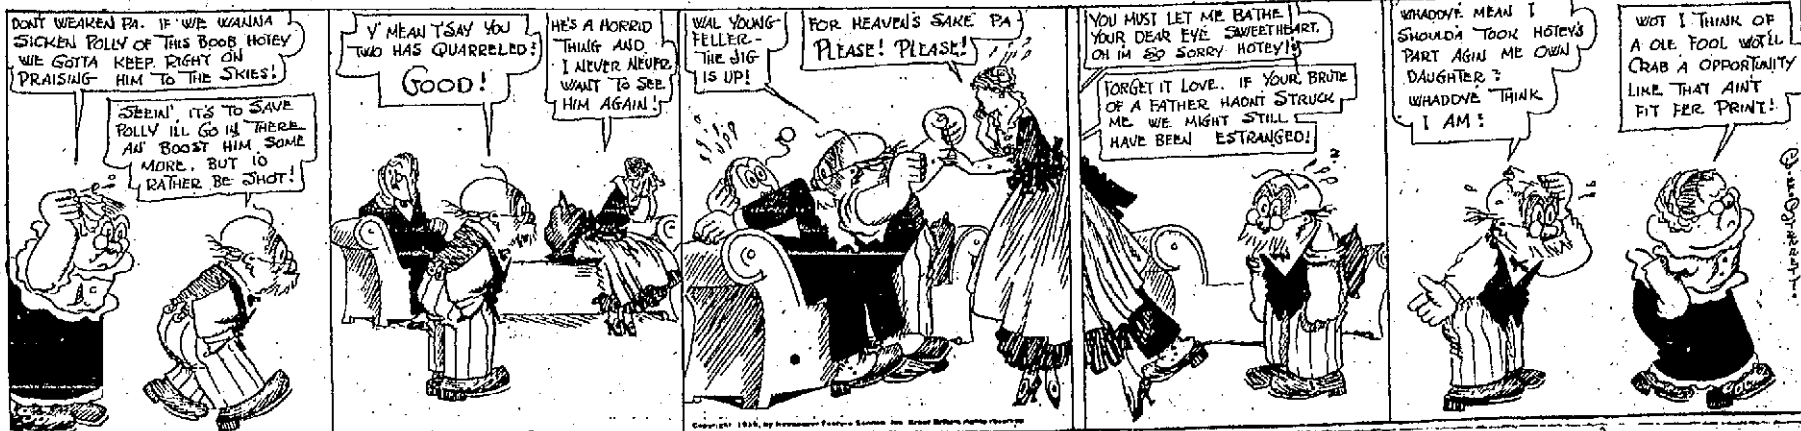

The human back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure; it makes a delightful after-work lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.

TERMINAL FOREMAN IS STABBED BY WORKMAN

KNIFE USER GIVES SELF UP, VICTIM IS TAKEN TO HIS HOME

Enraged, it is said, because he was to be discharged at the noon hour, as the result of an argument about some work, William A. Patton, aged 30 years, a laborer, stabbed his foreman, Robert J. Minnery, 30, six times with a dirk knife at the N. & W. planing mill, East Portsmouth, Thursday morning about 9 o'clock.

One stab missed the heart, penetrating the flesh just below the vital organ. Besides he received three cuts in the left side, one in the back and one on the head. Patton made no attempt to escape instead walking calmly to the timekeeper's office and demanding his time.

Patton was arrested by Earl B. Simpson, special officer at the R.

R. Y. M. C. A. building and turned over to Police Chief W. T. McCarty, upon the latter's arrival with the city service wagon. The wounded foreman was rushed to the emergency hospital at the "Y" where Dr. Albert Bernad dressed his wounds which were not regarded as necessarily serious. Later he was removed to his home at No. 1822 Eleventh street. Patton was locked up at the city prison. He lives in an alley house, back of Kendall avenue between Eighth and Ninth streets.

Patton when taken to the police station claimed that he had been attacked by Minnery with a piece of pipe and had been hit several times before he used the knife.

Anderson Bros. Use Novel Buying Plan

New York, April 15.—(Special to the Times)—An unique method of purchasing merchandise for special sale purposes was demonstrated here today. The Anderson Bros. store in Ohio used the columns of the New York Times, advertising for manufacturers to present lines of underpriced goods for acceptance of the Anderson buyers at their offices on the thirteenth floor of the Cuyler building. A crowd of manufacturers' salesmen were at the offices all afternoon and it is reported much merchandise was bought. When approached W. W. Anderson, one of the buyers, stated that the experiment was a success in every way and that many bargains were picked up, all of which would be used in a great anniversary sale to be given. Men in the dry goods district, generally, felt favorably impressed with the method pursued and indications are that other firms throughout the country will follow the method used by the Anderson store.

When seen today concerning the dispatch from New York, a member of the Anderson Bros. Co., stated it was true that two buyers were in the market at present and were advertising in the New York Times regarding special merchandise to be used in their Anniversary Sale to be held some time hence. Two other buyers from this firm were also in New York.

MRS. ROOSEVELT OPERATED ON

New York, April 15.—Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, who was taken to Roosevelt hospital last night by her husband, Col. Theodore Roosevelt, was operated on early today. Dr. Alexander Lambert, of the Cornell Medical School, was the surgeon in charge.

While the nature of Mrs. Roosevelt's ailment was not disclosed, it was stated that the operation was successful and that the condition of the patient was satisfactory.

The Colonel declined to discuss his wife's illness and referred inquiries to Dr. Lambert, but, judging from the look on his face, the operation and condition of Mrs. Roosevelt apparently were satisfactory.

APPEL FARM IS SCENE OF ANOTHER ROBBERY

Roy Lynn's blood hounds were used to trace a sneak thief who had forced the lock of a trunk at the Sam Lunsford home, on the James Appel farmplace north of Leesville, and stolen $10 Wednesday evening.

Mr. Lunsford had just finished his day's work on the farm and went to his home, which is located on top of a hill when he made the discovery. The robbery had occurred during the short time his wife was out in the garden. The hounds in charge of Tracker Tom Smith very readily took up the trail which led southward and over another very rocky and steep hill with an abundance of underbrush for a distance of several miles but was lost within 100 yards of a large house in that section. A few weeks ago 60 some chickens were stolen from the Appel farm place.

The City Beautiful Movement Should Be Boosted By All

Editor Times:

There is a society of noble women in Portsmouth, who are working to the end that the city they love may be in reality "The City Beautiful," as it already is in theory. They need and are entitled to encouragement, not only from the citizenry but from the city government. Portsmouth already enjoys the reputation of being a city of beautiful churches, handsome school houses, large factories and a splendid middle-class citizenship, and now it is time for the realization of the ideal of a beautiful city. It is far from being a homely city as it is, but the city women are working and praying to see realized a city well worth while, and individually and collectively all should work to the end of its realization. The hill top section is ideal so far as it goes. It is a city of beautiful homes, where every man owns his own home, there are practically no tenements. In the older parts of the city there is much room for improvement in the matter of lawns. Many people throw down their fences and then neglect to replace it with a stone or concrete curb, leaving the yard to the mercy of children, dogs and careless grown-ups, ruining the grass and leaving the lawn in a generally unattractive condition. No fence should be removed unless a curb takes its place. This looks like a small matter, but it is really a matter of importance in the city beautification. It goes without saying that the streets, alleys and back yards should be kept clean. The trimmer—or rather despoiler—of shade trees should be taken in hand, and either given a few lessons in the art of tree trimming, or handed a ticket to Paris unknown with no return coupon. Portsmouth's shade trees, originally handsome, have been mutilated and unwatered till they are anything but things of beauty, and the malefactor with saw and hatchet goes blithely on his murderous way.

You can trust the women for being on the side of whatever is good and beautiful, and it is safe to follow their lead in all matters where the uplift and betterment of the city or the race is concerned.

Respectfully,
"VINCENT."

Odd Fellows Held Splendid Meeting

Odd Fellows who attended the regular meeting of Portsmouth Lodge No. 416 on Wednesday evening were more than pleased with the good work of Canton Orient No. 67, who conferred the first degree upon Daniel Stephens and Wayne Nelson.

Although this is the first time that a team composed entirely of Patriots Militant conferred a subordinate lodge degree in this portion of the state, it was accomplished in a very commendable manner, despite the fact that there had been no previous rehearsals. After the degree work the Canton, under command of Capt. L. A. Shelton and in full dress uniform, gave a short floor and sword drill, which was much appreciated by the large number present.

Several visitors were present and the evening closed with a few short talks and a smoker.

CELEBRATE 25TH ANNIVERSARY OF CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY; THREE AMERICAN CARDINALS PRESENT

Washington, April 15.—The twenty-fifth anniversary of the Catholic University of America was celebrated here today in the presence of one of the most distinguished assemblages of Catholic clergy and laymen ever gathered in this country. The three American cardinals, eight archbishops, thirty bishops, thirty monsignori, eight heads of religious orders, sixty representatives of colleges and universities, over three hundred clergy and hundreds of distinguished laymen and women from all over the United States were present.

The ceremonies began this morning with solemn pontifical mass at St. Patrick's church, at which Cardinal Farley of New York was celebrant and Cardinal Gibbons delivered the sermon, followed by a luncheon, and later academic exercises at which a letter from Pope Benedict XV was read, and addresses were delivered by Cardinal O'Connell of Boston, President O. Stanley Hall of the American Association of Universities, Dr. John Cavanaugh, president of Notre Dame University, and Bishop Shahan, rector of the Catholic University of America.

Cardinal Gibbons in the course of his sermon at the pontifical mass said: "For the growth of the University we are indebted above all to the God of Wisdom, for whose glory the work was begun. To the great Pontiff Leo XIII and Pius X and to their successor Pope Benedict XV we make public acknowledgment of our gratitude. To the Catholics of the United States we return our thanks for their generous support. The experience of these twenty-five years emphasizes the needs which the University aims to supply; the need of divine truth to complete our human knowledge, of divine law, of the spirit of Christ in our ministrations of mercy and love. There is no real liberty without law, and there is no meaning or validity to law unless it be observed.

"The growth of democracy does not imply that each man shall become a law unto himself, but that he shall feel in himself the obligation to obey. If the emulating power has been transferred from the will of the ruler to the will of the people, the binding, coercive power has been laid with greater stress of responsibility than ever before upon the individual conscience. Unless men be taught that obedience is right and honorable and necessary alike for private interest and public weal, legislation will avail but little, the law making power will become a mockery and the people themselves will complain that legislation has been carried to excess.

"But conscience has need of a higher sanction than any merely human sense of justice. To meet the requirements of our religious, social and political situation is a duty that we owe to the Church and to our country. To fulfill it we must combine our efforts, and rejoice that in the Catholic University a center of thought and action has been provided."

New Era of Higher Catholic Education

Cardinal O'Connell's address at the academic exercises on "The Office and Responsibilities of the University in American Life," was in part as follows:

"We stand today at the beginning of a new era in the history of higher Catholic education in America. We rejoice in the goodly heritage of these twenty-five years; but we also look with such solemn thought to the future. The University is first of all a home of culture. It trains men of learning, of noble ideals and high standards; and through them it determines the culture of the nation. But it also trains the leaders, explaining the functions of the state, the rights and duties of citizenship, the vital problems of society, its ills and their remedies. "The growth of every univer-

ENTHUSIASM RAMPANT AT ROLLYING ELK MEETING

The annual inspection and installation of officers, coupled with an initiation Wednesday night, proved a sufficient magnet to attract what was probably one of the best meetings in point of attendance, and enthusiasm that Portsmouth Lodge B. P. O. Elks has held in many years.

Fully 125 members of the outlying tribe were seated around the festal board when this feature of the evening's festivities was reached. The tables were arranged in the big lodge room and as the banqueters sat down to the shimmering tables the scene was a most inspiring one, and Wednesday night, April 14, 1915, will be recalled as one of the most joyous and rollicking in the history of this growing and progressive order. The true spirit of Elkdom permeated the banquet hall and the Bohemian side of Elkdom was never more enjoyed than it was last night. Visitors from Chillicothe, Ironton, Waverly, Roanoke, Williamson, Bluefield, Ashland and Catlettsburg were present and thoroughly enjoyed every feature of the evening's program.

Following the initiation of a class of candidates the annual inspection was held by District Deputy Karl Zoellner, a past-exalted ruler of the local lodge, and it was an impressive ceremony, as it always is.

District Deputy Will Get Jewel

It was befitting that Mr. Zoellner saved his home lodge as the last one to inspect, and as he took the chair to begin the inspection he was greeted by much applause. It is a well-known fact in Portsmouth Elkdom that Mr. Zoellner made one of the best exalted rulers the lodge ever had, and persistence, tact and energy were rewarded when he was tendered a warm reception. As a token of esteem and appreciation it was announced that the lodge would in the near future present a handsome solid gold jewel to District Deputy Mr. Zoellner, and a similar insignia of honor to Past Exalted Ruler Orin B. Oakes. The latter laid down the jewel last night.

after a most successful year, and retired with a full realization of the fact that he was actuated by the sincerest motives and that each act of his eminently satisfactory administration reflected credit upon himself as well as his lodge. Mr. Oakes made a splendid little talk and heartily thanked the members for their unsavory loyalty and voiced his gratefulness for the honor conferred upon him by the lodge in that he, too, is shortly to be pre-entitled with a handsome jewel.

The new exalted ruler, H. Stanley McCull, when called upon for a short talk responded in a happy vein and assured those present that 1915, will be recalled as one of the most joyous and rollicking in the history of this growing and progressive order. The true spirit of Elkdom permeated the banquet hall and the Bohemian side of Elkdom was never more enjoyed than it was last night. Visitors from Chillicothe, Ironton, Waverly, Roanoke, Williamson, Bluefield, Ashland and Catlettsburg were present and thoroughly enjoyed every feature of the evening's program.

Gave Review Of Inspections

District Deputy Mr. Zoellner gave a brief review of the fourteen lodges he inspected the past three months, and stated that he would have a very comprehensive report to make of his inspections to the grand exalted ruler.

"I have looked after this important matter carefully and diligently and I feel that my untiring efforts to boost Elkdom in my district and to instill the spirit of progressiveness into the different lodges will bear fruit. I realize the grand lodge reposed considerable confidence in me and it gives me the greatest of pleasure to be in position to inspect my own dearly-beloved lodge," continued Mr. Zoellner. "It is an extreme pleasure that comes to so few of us and I feel that this is one of the happiest nights in my life."

Mr. Zoellner was at his best and his short review of Elkdom, as it was mirrored to him by his district, was interesting and well done. Past Exalted Ruler Orin B. Oakes then called on Judge George M. Osborn for a talk and he responded as he always does, in a most excellent style. Judge Osborn is a charter member of the lodge and he became quite prominent in his talk and told of the days when the Portsmouth Lodge was being formed and how it made its debut in the realm of Elkdom. He gave a short history of the lodge and recalled the names of the charter members, much to the pleasure of all those present.

Edwin Gableman followed Judge Osborn, and his brief talk was along happy lines and he was applauded as he sat down. Mr. Gableman talked of the various phases of Elkdom and made a neat little talk.

Song Birds Then Fluttered Forth

Then there were solos by Sam Williams, Francis Mack and Chester Biggles, of this city, and Hiram Brumberg and Conrad Neekamp, of Ironton. They were all round and sang many of the latest ballads. On behalf of the Ironton visitors present, Mr. Neekamp made a little speech, and it was a gem. He proved himself an after-dinner speaker of no mean ability, and urged each and every member to attend the Apple Show in Ironton next September as the guest of Ironton Elks.

A number of short talks were made, all the Elk minstrel songs were sung, and the night will always be remembered as one fraught with the keenest of pleasure, in which a band of jolly good fellows fittingly celebrated the annual inspection, installation and the initiation of a class.

The banquet was served in six courses by Caterer Jacob Pfau, and it was faultless. Assisted by a number of waiters and with Ruben Smith in charge of them, everything moved along without a hitch. Covers were laid for 125, and Mr. Pfau covered himself with glory, each guest being carefully looked after. The committee on arrangements included Messrs. Robert Lewis, E. K. S. Clokenbeard and Chalmers Davis, and they performed yeoman service. It was a big affair, but was handled with skill and diplomacy.

S. E. Kiser, Hiram Brumberg, Earl Ketter and Conrad Neekamp, of Ironton, attended the festivities.

PANIC ON NEW YORK ELEVATED

New York, April 15.—Two women and a man were seriously injured and about fifty persons hurt in a panic of passengers aboard a Third Avenue elevated railroad train at Chatham Square today.

The panic resulted from the derailment of one car of a seven car train, which failed to take a switch. A short circuit caused a small fire which added to the fears of the passengers.

Men and women, wedged tight in the cars, fought to reach the elevated structure, where they walked along the ties to the station, turned into a temporary hospital to care for the injured.

With the exception of the three taken to the hospitals none was seriously hurt. Tragic was laid up on both the Second and Third Avenue lines which join at Chatham Square.

OHIO BUILDINGS AT EXPOSITION IS CREDIT TO THE BUCKEYE STATE

JUDGE JAMES W. BANNON SR.

"The Ohio building at the Panama Exposition in San Francisco is a beautiful structure, architecturally and it is a credit to our state," said Judge James W. Bannon in discussing the Panama Exposition.

"Notwithstanding that Great Britain, France, Germany, Italy, Austria, Hungary and Russia are not represented, the exhibits are simply wonderful. The exposition is complete in every little detail. One building is more attractive than the other, the people are very courteous, and we found things really better than we had pictured. The trip is just what you want to make it. You can make it as inexpensive as you want and you can make it cost as much as you want," continued Judge Bannon.

"We were on the go all the time and enjoyed every feature of both the Panama and San Diego expositions. Everybody out West is boasting them and they will attract thousands of visitors from all parts of the United States.
